Cigarettes and Mahin's Under

SALT LAKE (Utah) March 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Senate, after a wrangle, this morning, passed the Allison anti-cigarette bill. President Henry Gardner and Senator Benner X. Smith of Salt Lake county were the only opponents of the bill. The measure prohibits the sale of cigarettes and cigarette papers in this state, but does not prohibit the manufacture of cigarettes in Utah for sale outside the state. In this bill is designed to discriminate in favor of Utah factories against factories outside the state. An effort to amend the bill to prohibit the manufacture of cigarettes inside the state at all was voted down.

Eight thousand savages have surrounded their fire arms. The Japanese army has built roads in the conquered territory and has fortified strategic points, which will be used as a base of operations against the Malays, the strongest and fiercest tribe on the island. Years of fighting are expected.

COLLEGE TUTOR

PRESENCE OF CO-EDS.

University of Washington Sophs Lay Hands on Faculty Member Who Fails to Wear Prescribed Green Cap on College Campus.
Vices Proves Good Old Scout.

SEATTLE (Wash.) March 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] P. J. Loreto, tutor in Spanish and member of the State University faculty, was soundly chastised this morning by twelve members of the sophomore class, for appearing on the campus without a green cap. Loreto was seized as he was passing through Denny Hall, overpowered after a hard struggle and hauled on to the grass, where the chastisement was administered.

An edict was issued last week by the sophomore, backed by the upper classes, to the effect that all members of the first class must resume today the emerald headgear prescribed in the campus rules. Loreto, who came to Washington but recently from Spain, asserted that his official position on the faculty would make him immune from the rule, and did not wear the prescribed cap.

Various sophomores on the outlook for freshmen slipped him on his way to one of his classes, and he was captured and carried outside the building.

On the campus before the building, in the presence of some forty gazing co-eds, and as many men, he was seized with short snubs and pieces of red and by hand. The sophomores found him a manageable man, as he struggled throughout the chastisement and they added a few blows for extra good measure.

Loreto was jerked up over the threshold at the time, but this afternoon he declared that he would take the episode in good part.

JAPANESE WOOL FIRMS FAIL.

Island to Starve to Death.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)
SEATTLE, March 17.—Heavy fall in the woolen and cloth trade in Japan, the most serious being those of the Wada and Matsui firms, are reported. Japanese mail advices brought by the steamship Sado Maru, which arrived from Yokohama today, speak of the two failures mentioned above as having failed.

Harmed and left to perish of starvation, did not even have a morsel of food. Japanese plume gatherers have been found dead on Salpan Island, in the Carolines, where they were gathered by Shimizu Bros., of Tokyo, and were left to starve.

Maru on Salpan and eight on Guam. In October last, the Sado Maru, which had given out and who were ill with beri beri, signalled to the Tora Maru to be taken off, but no notice was taken, and the schooner returned to Japan.

On February 9 the vessel again visited the island and found six corpses with a letter charging the company with leaving the men to die of starvation.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)
SEATTLE, March 17.—The Sado Maru was being towed by the Japanese ship Nippon when the vessel was towed by a Japanese passenger steamer, Tushima, returning after spending some years in America, received information of the execution of Dr. Kotoku, and jumped overboard, leaving a note to state he did this out of protest that anarchists should threaten the Emperor.

The people's party has issued a memorandum because of its attitude toward the government, for failing to check the Kotoku execution before it assumed large proportions, the memorial was regarded as a challenge, and somewhat excitedly, and with every conceivable means to be used to prevent them, with the exception of that anarchists are con-

(Special Correspondence of The Times.)

PHOENIX (Ariz.) March 18.—Mainly because no hall in Phoenix was large enough for the number who sought to be present at the projected Roosevelt public luncheon, this function has been abandoned by the general committee and Col. Roosevelt will eat his noon meal in Phoenix on Monday as the guest of the Rough Riders of Arizona. He will thereafter be taken to the capital to view the flag of the regiment, which occupies a glass case on the wall of the Governor's office, where he will also receive the veterans of the Civil and Spanish wars. Otherwise the plans made for his reception will be carried out. Gov. Sloan, Mrs. and Miss Sloan, Chief Justice Kent, Inspector-General E. O. C. Ord of the Arizona National Guard, and Archie Roosevelt, left last night for Winslow, whence they will accompany Col. Roosevelt to the Grand Canyon. This evening Gov. Sloan will give a dinner at El Tiro to Col. Roosevelt and his party. Friday will probably be spent in the descent of the canyon, and Phoenix will be reached Saturday morning at nine.

The Phoenix City Council has contracted to purchase the plant of the Phoenix Sewer & Drainage Company and has summoned Engineer M. O. Oimstead of Los Angeles to consult on necessary extensions, pending the sale of at least $200,000 bonds already authorized by Congress. This action will terminate all litigation and will enable the city to sell its bonds without hindrance.

Last year it was sought to prohibit the sale of fireworks, but the ordinance finally was abrogated on complaint of dealers that they had been permitted to lay in a large stock of fireworks. This year, the City Council has taken time by the forelock and has decreed that fireworks shall not be discharged within the city limits.

Tuesday afternoon at the corner of First Avenue and Bennett law firm laid the cornerstone of the new building of the Woman's Club. The ceremonies were conducted by Mrs. R. M. Tafel, president of the club. Rev. H. M. Campbell delivered the invocation. Mrs. B. A. Fowler told the history of the club from its foundation in 1898. Mrs. D. E. Heard presented the cornerstone, a polished piece of native granite, and there was presentation of symbols by Mrs. Bonney V. Cushman and Mrs. Walter Talbot. The club now has 135 members, owns a club lot, is free of debt and has $11,471 invested for a building fund.

Supervisor John T. Orme returned yesterday from California with a large amount of valuable information concerning the ripraping of country and rivers to withstand such floods as have lately been known within the district visited by him, south of Los Angeles. It has been concluded that the Centerville street bridge can best be guarded by driven posts with a network of barbed wire, this system having proven even more satisfactory than courses of rough stone.

Mayor C. S. Evans of Riverside will witness the dedication of the Roosevelt Dam as special guest of several local business men, who lately visited his city in quest of information concerning the proper paving of streets.

POET OF SIERRAS IMPROVING.

Aged Joaquin Miller Expected to Be Able to Leave Oakland Hospital
When Daughter Returns.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
OAKLAND, March 17.—Miss Jaunita Miller, daughter of Joaquin Miller, the "Poet of the Sierras," who is still at Fidelity Hospital, is expected to return shortly from a hurried trip East to settle her affairs.

When she returns it is thought that the poet will be sufficiently recovered to be taken to his home on the heights, where his daughter will remain with him for some time.

Miller continues to improve slowly, but steadily, and is on the way to complete recovery, in the opinion of his physicians.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
SPOKANE, March 17.—William H. Harrison, aged 21, was found guilty today of highway robbery for holding up a crowd of men in his father's store on Sprague avenue, in this city. According to a story told on the witness stand by Preston Durbin, who pleaded guilty, and is now serving a five-year sentence in Walla Walla, the robbery was executed by himself and the Harrison youth, but was planned by Tom Harrison, older brother, and C. H. Harrison, the father, and proprietor of the store. The father is still to be tried.

THU OF NEW OKLAHOMA LAWS.

One Eases Up on Foreign Bonding Companies; One Gives Stricter Insurance Control; One for Roads.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
OKLAHOMA CITY (Okla.) March 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Gov. Lee Cruce today signed the Riddle-Memminger bill relative to bonding companies; the Goulding bill, giving the insurance commission more complete control over mutual fire insurance companies, and a bill creating a State department of highways, to be supported by a State license tax of $1 on every automobile.

The Riddle-Memminger bill makes it easier for foreign companies to do a bonding business in Oklahoma. Hitherto the companies have been required to deposit $50,000 in cash or bonds with the State Treasurer. This requirement has been changed so that the required bond is $100,000, but it can be held by State officials in this or any other State.

"NO TIPPING" SUCCESS.

Big Hotel in London Where Servants Must Live on Their Wages Commands Large Patronage.

(Special Correspondence of The Times.)

LONDON, March 17.—When Sir "Joe" Lyons, England's newest knight, opened a big hotel on the Strand, about eighteen months ago, and announced that there would be no "tips" for the new hotel, most old Londoners laughed. They predicted that within a year either the servants would be accepting "tips" in the time-honored way or the hotel would be closed.

Neither has happened. The hotel hasn't closed and the no-tipping system has proved such a success that the directors are going to build the largest hotel in England and probably in the world, where the same system will be practiced. Alfred Salmon, one of the directors of the Strand Hotel, gave me some particulars about the new place, yesterday. It will contain 1,000 bedrooms and its total dimensions will be over 40,000 cubic feet. It will have a large roof garden—an innovation in English hotels—smoking and billiard rooms, libraries, and in fact, every modern convenience.

I also asked Mr. Salmon if their success with the Strand Hotel could be taken as meaning the success of the no tipping system.

"Yes," he answered. "It can. The system has been a complete success."

"How do you explain this with the regulations?" I asked. "Do they ever attempt to evade them?"

"They do occasionally," he replied. "But it's only very occasionally. As a rule they fall in with the system at once."

"And you find the servants just as ready to oblige as when they had to depend on tips?"

"Quite," was his answer.

The servants themselves seem to consider the system a success from their point of view, for Mr. Salmon said they preferred the regular wage to the uncertain earnings of the waiter who depends on tips.

Many people here are of the opinion that such places as this hotel are quickly bringing about the death of the boarding-house keeper.

IRON ORE SUPPLY GOING FAST.

Washington Official Estimates Supply in United States Will Be Completely Exhausted by 1940.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)
PHILADELPHIA, March 17.—Speaking on the conservation of iron, Dr. Allerton S. Cushman, director of the Bureau of International Research at Washington, declared that the Franklin Institute last night that the present rate of production of the iron supply of the United States will be exhausted in thirty years.

Not only is the production threatened, according to Dr. Cushman, but the iron and steel now in use is rapidly deteriorating under the influence of corrosion or rust, and it is absolutely essential, he believes, that some means of protection be found to assure to the world of iron in the future.

From 5,000,000 tons in 1870, Dr. Cushman stated, the production of iron in this country had increased to 52,000,000 tons in 1910. The per capita production of pig iron in the United States has increased more than 1000 per cent, since 1850, according to the scientist.

"If the average rate of increase by decades should be continued," he said, "the present average rate of increase in the next three decades of 6,000,000,000 tons of ore. But the ore supply now available in the United States is estimated at 4,750,000,000 tons, which is only 78 per cent of the amount needed on this assumption."

"It is evident, therefore, that the present average rate of increase in production of high-grade ore cannot continue even for the next thirty years."

PNEUMONIA PLAGUE ABATING.

Approach of Spring Brings Relief to Chinese Suffering from Japanese Papers Accused of Exaggeration.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
SEATTLE (Wash.) March 17.—According to oriental newspapers just received, the pneumonia plague in Manchuria is abating with the approach of spring. The Japanese papers, according to the Chinese, are exaggerating the extent of the plague, because the ravages of the disease have been profitable to the Japanese in enabling them, on pretext of combating it, to extend their authority in Southern Manchuria.

The International Medical Conference, which is to assemble in Mukden, Manchuria, April 5, to consider the plague, will continue in session two weeks. Measures are necessary to prevent a recurrence of the disease next winter.

More than twenty-three persons died of the plague in and near the city of Chang Chuen in three weeks, a record of deaths having been kept. The disease has been checked. Thousands of stray dogs, which roamed the country and undoubtedly spread the plague, have been killed.

Harrison Wing of Party Accuses National Committee of Supporting Republican Candidate for Mayor of Chicago—Lie Passed by Austrian Politician.

CHICAGO, March 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A crisis was precipitated today in Democratic factional warfare by the Carter H. Harrison wing of the Democracy, which in a public statement, repudiated Roger C. Sullivan as Democratic national committeeman and leader of the Democracy in Illinois. This caused a big sensation in the mayoral election canvass.

Alderman Peter Reinberg, chairman of the Carter H. Harrison Mayoral Campaign Committee, made the direct charge in a statement given out, at the Briggs House headquarters of the Democratic candidate for Mayor, that the Democratic national committeeman was supporting Alderman Charles E. Merriam, Republican nominee opposing Mr. Harrison. A special instance of alleged Merriam support is pointed out by Chairman Reinberg.

National Committeeman Sullivan branded the Harrison charge as an absolute lie. Alderman Merriam's campaign managers give details of the instance referred to in an effort to substantiate the denial of the Democratic national committeeman.

"Roger C. Sullivan is not only supporting Professor Merriam, but he is doing it in a most deliberate manner," said one of the Harrison supporters.

statement comes as an unheeded accusation in the heat of a campaign and declares it will drive the Sullivan Democrats away from the Democratic nominee.

In the primary election campaign Mr. Harrison in a public speech declared that he did not want the Sullivan Democrats with him now and that he did not want them with him after the election.

Martin Littleton of New York Finds Game With President Taft Big Medicine in More Than One Way.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

NEW YORK, March 17.—Congressman Martin W. Littleton, who is one of the prominent Democratic candidates for the United States Senate from New York State, is back in New York with an enthusiastic recommendation for Dr. Taft of Augusta, Ga. When he started for Augusta a few weeks ago, it was with the expectation that he would have to spend some time in a hospital as a result of an abscess along the spine. He had been so informed by a physician whom he consulted.

On the last day of his vacation, however, Mr. Littleton went around golf links with the President. Mr. Taft beat him 2 up, and 1 to play, but the exercise was apparently just what the Congressman needed. For the treatment given by Dr. Taft broke the abscess, and Mr. Littleton returned to New York in excellent health.

Ambassador Bryce Speaks at Hibernian Banquet.

Discusses the Life of Genial Saint Patrick.

Tells of Advancement Made by Emerald Isle.

(Associated Press Night Report.)

BALTIMORE, March 17.—At the St. Patrick's Day dinner of the Hibernian Society of Baltimore tonight, Ambassador Bryce of Great Britain discussed some of the controversial questions regarding the birthplace and career of St. Patrick, and told some anecdotes of the saint's life. He observed that few are the facts about him that can be considered historically established, the impression which St. Patrick's life and preaching made upon his contemporaries make it certain that he was a great man, full of zeal and courage, and a saintly man whose memory deserved the reverence which Ireland only to the whole Christian world has given to it for fourteen centuries.

His hearers would understand, Mr. Bryce said, that about Ireland he could say nothing of a political nature. Having been for some time, just before he came here four years ago, responsible as chief secretary for the administration of Ireland, he could assure them that the condition of the people had greatly improved in the last thirty or forty years, and it was still advancing. The farmers were better off; their rents were reduced; they had money in the banks; they were becoming owners of the land they tilled, and before long nearly all the land will belong to the cultivators, while cottages were being built all over the country for the laborers.

A great revival of interest in the ancient Gaelic language and literature was in progress, the speaker said, and the spirit of patriotic pride in the traditions and history of Ireland was showing itself in many ways. Scarcely a man or woman who was not familiar with their writings—men such as Swift, Burke and Goldsmith; men like Grattan and Plunkett; and Daniel O'Connell, and this was true not only of the Irish in Europe, but also of Irish stock in America, with such great statesmen like Calhoun and great lawyers like Charles O'Connor.

SAN FRANCISCO CELEBRATES. PARADES AND EXERCISES.

(Associated Press Day Report.)

SAN FRANCISCO, March 17.—The annual day of Ireland's patron saint was celebrated here under the auspices of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and the United Irish Societies of San Francisco. There was a parade, headed by the Hibernia Rifles, and in St. Patrick's Church a sermon in Gaelic was preached by Rev. Father Boyle. In the afternoon there were literary exercises, concerts and various other entertainments.

ALL DUBLIN REJOICES. DAY IS CELEBRATED.

(Associated Press Day Report.)

DUBLIN (Ireland) March 17.—St. Patrick's Day was celebrated throughout Ireland with unusual enthusiasm, because of the promise of home rule at an early date. Trooping of the color at Dublin Castle was carried out with elaborate ceremony. Queen Mother Alexandra sent the customary present of shamrock to the Irish Guards, every soldier of whom was bedecked with a spray when on parade.

HONORS FOR IRISH POET.

(Associated Press Day Report.)

WASHINGTON, March 17.—A bronze bust of Tom Moore, the Irish poet, will be unveiled in the Corcoran Art Gallery here, May 27, on the eve of the one hundred and thirty-second anniversary of the poet's birth. Prominent Irishmen of the city subscribed the fund. This will be the first homage paid in the nation's capital to the Irish poet, who is known here not only through his writings, but by reason of his residence here in 1804 and following years.

COLORADO MOB AFTER JAPS.

GREELY (Col.) March 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Every window in the house of George Ikeda, a Japanese residing in the city, was smashed last night when a mob of men and boys bombarded his house, and Mrs. Ikeda and her Japanese woman companion took refuge in the cellar in fear of their lives.

By the time the police were summoned to the scene the mob had dispersed. The attack evidently had been well planned, as the crowd quietly surrounded the house and at a given signal began hurling stones and brick bats at the windows. The bombardment was kept up for several minutes and then the crowd dispersed. No arrests have been made.

Ikeda conducts a general store and is one of the most prominent Japanese in northern Colorado and is an alumnus of Harvard University. So far as known he has no enemies who would incite such an attack and it is believed that the disturbance followed Japanese-American war talk on the part of Ikeda. The Sheriff is investigating and arrests are expected soon.

TIPS BARRED IN ARKANSAS.

Senate Passes Bill Making It a Misdemeanor for Waiters to Take Gratuity.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
LITTLE ROCK (Ark.) March 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The State Senate of Arkansas yesterday passed a bill making it a misdemeanor for any waiter or other employee of a hotel or restaurant in the State, or of trains passing through the State, to accept a tip for any service rendered. It is one of the many freak bills introduced in the Arkansas Legislature, and, like many others that became laws, it is likely to be passed by the House and signed by the Governor. Nearly all of the employees of hotels, restaurants, trains, etc., in Arkansas are negroes. The Missouri House more than a week ago passed a bill making it unlawful to "treat" in saloons.

rooms without claims being filed for damaged fruit.
It is thought that next month will provide a good opportunity for this trial inspection and the assistant secretary said today that he anticipated the arrival of a suitable cargo, which he will personally inspect, some time in April.

In the meantime, the importers are keeping Curtis well supplied with data, which they claim sustains their contention that the proposed regulations would be inequitable.

PROGRESS ON PANAMA CANAL.

Interesting Statistics Made Public at Washington Showing How Big Ditch Is Rushing to Completion.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
WASHINGTON, March 17.—The excavation in the central division of the Panama canal, including the great Culebra cut and the Chagres section, during February was the greatest yet recorded, being 1,409,528 cubic yards.
Altogether in that division 71,023,522 yards have been excavated, leaving 26,014,486 yards to be removed.

In the Atlantic division the total excavation was 574,199 yards and in the Pacific division 709,217 yards.
Taking the canal as a whole, up to March 1, there had been taken out 31,829,426 yards, leaving to be excavated 60,708,250 yards.
The canal at the Pacific entrance is completed from deep water to a point opposite the Panama railroad wharf at Balboa, a distance of about five miles. Inland from this point the open water channel extends three miles, varying from thirty feet to forty-five feet in depth and certain sections have been excavated to its final width of 500 feet.

In the Atlantic entrance to the canal, the channel is completed to its full width of 500 feet. There remains to be taken out of this section 30,000-600 yards of earth and 3,800,000 cubic yards of rock, so the earth excavation is 66 per cent, and the rock 34 per cent, completed.
Excavation in the big Gatun lock is practically completed and about 56 per cent of the work has been completed. The Gatun dam, the greatest in the world, is about 90 per cent completed.
The concrete work on the locks at Pedro Miguel is over 87 per cent completed and about 11 per cent of the concrete is in place at the Miraflores locks.
Bids for the six emergency dams to safeguard all of the permanent locks on the canal will be opened at Washington, March 30.

DIVORCE AS AID TO HAPPY HOME.PENNSYLVANIA PROFESSOR HAS NEW CONCEPTION.

Increase in Separation Rate Means That Women Are Showing More Strength of Mind, His Theory.
Legislation Not the Cure for the Unhappily Married.

KANSAS CITY, March 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] No chance exists to retard the rapidly increasing divorce rate by mere legislation, according to J. P. Lichtenberger, instructor in sociology at the University of Pennsylvania.

"Understand me, I do not sym-patize with the divorce conditions as they exist in this country today," Dr.
Lichtenberger said. "I deplore them, but my study and investigation of the subject lead me to conclude that there is no remedy in legislation. We have plenty of laws on the subject already. A uniform divorce law for all the States might aid in dividing property interests when husband and wife separate, but it would not diminish the number of divorces.
"Nor do I believe in severe divorce laws, making it extremely difficult to obtain legal separation.
"I believe we have more happy homes today than we ever had, and I believe the increase in the divorce rate is the cause of it. The fact that the divorce rate has increased does not mean that immorality has increased.
It means just the opposite: It means that women have become stronger in mind and character and have thrown off the yoke of dependence that attended their unhappy marriage condition.
"Law neither encourages nor discourage divorce. It is a social condition apart from the law.
"A higher ideal of marriage must be taught before a cure is effected."

STEAMER BURNS IN THAMES.

Furness Line Freighter, Creosote Laden, Beached Two Hours After Leaving Dock.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
LONDON, March 17.—The Furness line freighter steamer North Point, which sailed today for Philadelphia, was destroyed by fire in the Thames
two hours after she left her wharf.
The crew of forty were taken off in safety after the vessel had been beached. She carried no passengers.
The general cargo included a quantity of creosote.
The flames spread so rapidly that

THREE TO QUIT
AS DIRECTORS.

Missouri Pacific's Board to Choose President.

Election Will Mark Retirement of St. Louisans.

How Gould Reached Agreement With Loeb.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
ST. LOUIS (Mo.) March 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Charles C. Clarke, E.
B. Pryor and S. B. Pryor, all of St.
Louis, will retire from the directorate of the Missouri Pacific as soon as the president is chosen, probably next week.

The new president, whose identity is not yet known, will succeed Clarke, who will retire and he will have the privilege of nominating the successors to the Pryors. The new president, no matter where he comes from, will live at St. Louis and maintain headquarters here. No attempt will be made to run the system from New York, a thousand miles distant, or from Chicago, 300 miles away.

WILL LIVE IN ST. LOUIS.

The directors, who will succeed E.
B. Pryor, who is vice-president of the company, and S. B. Pryor, who is vice-president of the Simmons Hardware Company, will live in St. Louis. Three of the directors will be residents of St. Louis. The Pryors are decidedly friendly to George J. Gould and it was at his request that they consented to be elected, with the understanding they would relinquish their places at his request.

All the directors will assemble in New York Tuesday for the election and it is understood the Pryors have been invited to attend. Gould will be elected chairman of the board and an executive committee probably will be chosen. Between Gould and Kuhn Loeb & Co. there exists a "gentleman's agreement" according to the terms of which Gould will be chairman of the board and Kuhn and their allies will have a majority in the board and the Executive Committee.

GOULD TO LOEB THREE.

Gould has nine directors in the board, while the other interests have only four. When Clarke and the Pryors resign, Gould will have six members only. The president, the two new St. Louis directors and the four directors now representing Kuhn, Das Deutsche Bank, the Rockefeller and Sage interests, will give these groups jointly seven directors. The new president will be chairman of the Executive Committee.
Gould, Frederick T. Gates, representing the Rockefeller interest, Cornelius Vanderbilt and Paul M. Warburg, representing Kuhn, Loeb & Co., and Edwin T. Jeffery, Gould's chief adviser, will almost certainly be elected to the Executive Committee. The other place may be allotted again to Kingdom Gould.

TESTING OKLAHOMA LAW.

RAILROAD BRINGS ACTION.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
OKLAHOMA CITY (Okla.) March 17.— [Exclusive Dispatch.] The question of the validity of the new railroad tax law, enacted by the 31st Legislature, which was a combination of ad valorem and gross revenue tax, was brought to the Supreme Court for the first time Friday by the case of the Missouri, Oklahoma and Gulf Railway Company versus Nell Weimer, treasurer, and J.
W. McCune, Sheriff of McIntosh county.
In McIntosh county the railroad company brought suit to enjoin the collection of taxes levied in that county under the assessment made by the State board, amounting to $231,144, alleging that the assessment should have been made under the new law instead of the old one, and that it was, therefore, invalid. The District Court refused to grant an injunction and the

DULUTH DEALERS COMPLAIN.
RATE DISCRIMINATION CHARGE.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
WASHINGTON, March 17.—Complaint that Duluth is being discriminated against by the railroad of the Northwest in favor of Chicago, Minneapolis and Milwaukee, as grain-handling ports, was made today to the Interstate Commerce Commission by the Duluth Board of Trade. The proceeding is instituted by the Chicago Northern Railroad and many other lines operating in the Northwest. It is alleged that rates on grain, grain products and goods from Southern Minnesota and Southern North Dakota to Duluth are excessive, unreasonable and unjust.

TRAINING FOR RAILROADS.

LINE HELPS IOWA COLLEGE.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
CHICAGO, March 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] An educational department has been established by the Chicago Great Western Railroad Company in connection with the Corn Belt Business College of Oelwein, Iowa, for the purpose of giving young men residing along its line an opportunity of taking, at small expense, a course in telegraphy and railroad science. In addition to the regular course of instruction, lectures on all branches of all railroad work are given regularly at the college by officers of the railroad. The company is offering a limited number of free scholarships to young men, preferably sons of employees who can provide references and come to the management recommended by one of the company's officials. This move along the line of what is designated as progressive railroading is similar in a degree to the plan of the Atchafalaya, Tupelo and Santa Fe Road in training young men to become expert mechanics.

COMPLAINT ON RATES.

OKLAHOMANS FILE PROTEST.

OKLAHOMA CITY (Okla.) March 17.— [Exclusive Dispatch.] Complaint was filed today by the Oklahoma Citizens Committee yesterday with the Interstate Commerce Commission against all of the railroads operating in Texas and Oklahoma, seventy-one in number, directed against interstate rates which discriminate in favor of Texas points as against Oklahoma points. It is charged that two different bases of rates are used in this tariff.

OFFICER RESENTS "SENTENCE" OF WAYWARD YOUTH.

Drastic Action by Admiral Dewey and Acting Secretary Winthrop Follows Decision of Chicago Juvenile Court Jurist—Service Requires Good Moral Character.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
CHICAGO, March 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Judge Merritt W. Pinckney of the Juvenile Court stirred up a hornet's nest today. By "sentencing" a boy to join the United States Navy, he caused indignation among naval officers in Washington and in Chicago. Admiral Dewey sent a casuistic telegram on the subject and ordered an immediate investigation of the jurist's reported "sentence."

Beckman Winthrop, acting Secretary of the Navy, sent word from Washington that the enlistment would not be permitted.

Capt. J. H. Comfort said he would protest against the sentence to Judge Pinckney.

"No judge has a legal or other right to send any boy to the navy," said Capt. Comfort. "The navy is not a reform school. I have instructed my office force to send the boy and the truant officer, who will bring him here, to me, when they put in their appearance."

"A judge is supposed to be an intelligent man, and I don't know where he got the idea that he could send a boy to the navy."

"Judges all over the country have this mistaken idea. I shall take up the matter in full with Judge Pinckney by letter. It is as difficult to enlist in the navy as it is to get a position on the police force. I rejected an applicant a few days ago, and he tried to get enlisted through the aid of a big politician, a member of Congress, but he was not accepted.

Rich Denverite Lias All His Per-

Wealthy People.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
DENVER (Colo.) March 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Lawrence C. Phipps is the one wealthy man in Denver to list his personal property at a fair value with the County Assessor. Mr.
Phipps cheerfully admitted that he had a little money and some property, and without the least fuss, pays nineteen twenty-fourths as much taxes on his personal property as twenty of Den-ver's other rich people combined.

Mr. Phipps told the assessor that he had personal property in Denver worth $24,300. The twenty other rich persons said that their personal property combined was worth only $120,076. He listed money, notes and credits at $75-000, furniture, jewels, watches and clocks and automobiles $19,300.

SENATE UNDER LOCK AND KEY.

Wolfe's Greater San Francisco Bill on Rocky Road.

Important to Los Angeles in Relation to Hewitt's.

Gates Says He'll Resign Before Voting for Either.

BY W. R. WILLIAMS.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SACRAMENTO, March 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A wild goose chase to which Senator Estadillo went today without getting excited by the Senate was responsible for the Senate being locked under a call of the House Committee for two hours at dinner time when the Senators were anxious to make their toilets for the reception at the Governor's mansion.

The roll was called on motion of Senator Wolfe to reconsider the vote by which his Greater San Francisco constitutional amendment was defeated Tuesday. After two hours of debate Wolfe got twenty-five votes for reconsideration but was defeated by a vote of 25 to 15. The two heaviest members of the Senate, each weighing nearly 200 pounds, Wolfe said they would vote for reconsideration and he declared he would lock the Senate all night to get their votes.

The call was ordered and Lieut. Gov. Wallace issued an order to Sergeant-at-Arms Coughlin to bring in Estadillo and Birdall but Coughlin could not be found. He is from Oakland which has fought the Wolfe measure bitterly. An assistant was armed with the writ and the Senate prepared for a long wait, as Estadillo was in the marshes and Birdall in Placer county.

TURMOIL IN SENATE.

Half an hour passed, and Senator Thompson, an antagonist of the Wolfe amendment, was in the chair. Every body was chatting when Strobble of Alameda made a motion that the call be suspended. Wolfe was in the lobby, and Wallace started to put the motion when Wolfe caught his words and shouted, "Wait, wait, from this time on the chamber is in instant all was shouting. Wallace rushed to the president's chair and took the gavel. Thompson returned to the floor. Wallace put the motion and declared it lost. The situation was embarrassing to Thompson as it made it appear that he was about to take action to suspend the session to declare call suspended. He says he was merely preparing to put the motion.

After several attempts to move Wolfe by such motions, Senator Stetson, seeing an all-night session ahead, consented to deliver two votes for reconsideration, and Wolfe agreed to end the imprisonment.

The record was changed to show that the vote for reconsideration was unanimous. Wolfe's side was the best of the session and again demonstrated that he is easily the leader of all in floor tactics.

IMPORTANT LOS ANGELES.

The vote was important to Los Angeles because of the similarity of the Wolfe and Hewitt consolidation measures. In the debate Wolfe promised that he would have the Hewitt safeguards attached to his amendment. The assembly, which led Larkin to ask him why he did not wait and amend the Hewitt measure to fit his needs. It was also important because Maj. H. C. Osborne, representing the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, appeared this morning with a message to Senators Gates, Bell and Thompson from the directors of that body asking them to support the Wolfe and Hewitt amendments. That this was in co-operation with the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce and other organizations was made plain by Wolfe, who announced it as a fact in his speech.

But the contentious trio did not heed the message from the south and each voted against the Wolfe amendment, even after it has been amended to provide for a vote of the entire county of Los Angeles.

GATES DECLARES WAR.

"I feel that I am sent here to exercise my judgment on such matters," said Senator Gates, "and until the voters of the county regularly direct me to cast my vote otherwise I will not change."

Gates says he would rather resign than yield his convictions against anything that will disintegrate Los Angeles county as the Hewitt bill proposes. Hewitt and Hurd did vote for Wolfe's measure on every roll call and it is expected that in return the solid San Francisco nine will vote for Hewitt's next week. But Stetson and Tyrrell and Gates and Thompson say they have a sure negative vote of sixteen on any merger amendments, which insured the passage of none at this session. A two-thirds vote is required and hence fourteen members may defeat either amendment whether present or not.

Wolfe tried to gain reconsideration first on the ground of "senatorial courtesy," which both Stetson and Tyrrell refused and which Thompson seconded. Tyrrell said he had gained nothing from Senators Gates, Stetson and Tyrrell, but the worst of it, and he would not ask or give courtesy longer.

YOTE COMING TODAY.

Wolfe and Stetson agreed in order to unlock the Senate doors that the Wolfe amendment is to come to a vote this morning, immediately after roll call, without debate. As Curtin and Campbell, who voted for reconsideration today, announced that they are still against the measure, its passage is regarded as impossible.

It is the intention of Wolfe to immediately join the support of the Hewitt amendment, which is intended to facilitate the organization of combined city and county government for Los Angeles, and to make this easy Hewitt has offered a substitute embodying a large part of the Wolfe plan of power centers of population into one big city.

HI TOO BUSY FOR COLONEL.

Won't Come From Capital to Direct Roosevelt in Los Angeles.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SACRAMENTO, March 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Gov. Johnson has decided that the duties of his office will not permit him to go to Los Angeles to greet former President Roosevelt, who is due at Los Angeles next Tuesday. There are so many measures now in his hands, he says, he can not break the work of his office, though he may find time to run over to Berkeley for a few hours on Thursday. Marshall Stimson, who is here, is understood to have made a final effort to have him change his mind and visit the South, but was unsuccessful.

DEADLOCK EVOKES SARCASM.

Albany Citizens Advise for Candidate to Seek Office in Legislature of New York.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

ALBANY (N. Y.) March 17.—Some anonymous citizen of Albany, who is evidently disgusted with the long deadlock in the State Legislature over the election of Senator Dewey, has appropriated a considerable sum from his own pocket to call public attention to the dilatory tactics of the Democratic majority. On top of a tall office building in the main street of the city, looking toward the capitol, he has caused to be erected a sign reading "Dewey, Dewey, Dewey," and has caused it to be brightly illuminated at night. The sign reads:

WANTED—Volunteers for United States Senate. Apply to "Deadlock New York Legislature."

Only a handful of Legislators are in Albany today and there will not be a quorum for legislative purposes until next week.

Reports are current that a conference is to be held in New York in a few days among the Democratic Legislators supporting the candidacy of William F. Sheehan to consider whether the support of Dewey is a compromise candidate to be accepted. It is said that the Governor is being called by Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, as a result of a recent conference with the Governor and Mayor Gaynor.

GUTHRIE (OKLA.) March 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Six more State banks in Oklahoma have nationalized.

The Prudential State Bank of Nowata has become the Prudential National Bank and Trust Company of Nowata. The State Bank of Nowata has merged and nationalized; the State Bank of Nowata has merged and nationalized; the State Bank of Nowata has merged and nationalized.

Among the committee amendments is one which will discontinue the county where the corporation has its place of business, but Senator Thompson is not sure yet that this amendment meets fully what the South wants.

Another amendment permits mercantile corporations to report the valuation of their stock instead of their gross receipts.

SINKS AFTER COLLISION.

British Sealer Engulfed by Waves Off California—Crew Saved by Government Collier.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

SAN FRANCISCO, March 17.—Capt. Smith of the United States collier Saturn, which made port tonight from San Diego, reported the sinking at sea on Wednesday, March 15, of the British sealer schooner Umbra, which was run down by the Saturn.

The collision occurred in latitude 34° north, longitude 124° west, at 10 p. m. The Saturn stood by until all the crew of the Umbra were picked up. They were brought to this port. Capt. Smith reports that the Umbra was struck on the port quarter and sank within half an hour. The schooner's boats were out fishing at the time, and the collier stood by until 1 o'clock awaiting their return. There were thirteen Indian canoes and two seal boats, containing all told seven white men, twenty-five Indians, men, two Indian women, and one Chinese. The Umbra had taken only one seal skin when sunk.

SIR EDWARD GREY DISCUSSES INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION.

Warns Hearers Not to Misconstrue His Remarks on Subject, But Expresses Great Hopes of What May Grow Out of Such Arrangement Between United States and Great Britain—An Example to Entire World.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

LONDON, March 17.—Sir Edward Grey further developed his views on international arbitration tonight at the annual banquet of the International Arbitration League and corrected misapprehensions regarding his speech in the House of Commons, in which he gave support to the suggestion of President Taft for an Anglo-American treaty for the settlement by arbitration of any questions that might arise between the two governments.

"I observe," he said, this evening, "that some of the words I used the other day are being construed as if a general arbitration treaty between two great nations would be tantamount to a defensive alliance between them."

"If a general arbitration treaty were made between two great nations and became firmly enrolled in the feelings of the people of both countries, and if one of them was in the course of time made the general arbitration treaty, put with a third power, in which arbitration had been offered and refused by the third power, certainly I think there would be a strong sympathy between the two powers who had made the general arbitration treaty. But that is a matter which depends upon public opinion and in which public opinion will take care of itself."

studied to become the wife of the man she loves, pretty Miss Nina Bunker, 15 years old, freshman student at the University of Washington, eloped Tuesday morning with Carl Baker, bandmaster of the Puget Sound navy yard. A telegram received by the parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bunker, who are prominent people, today conveyed the news that they have been married.

Baker, 27 years old, is a student of 27 years, and an accomplished musician. The parents are said to have offered no objections to their daughter's flight for the bandmaster, but looked with disfavor upon an immediate marriage, believing she ought to wait until she became of age.

Tuesday morning Baker obtained a ten-day furlough and the same morning Miss Bunker failed to appear at the school. The schoolmaster, who for Seattle and informed the anxious parents that they would return shortly as man and wife.

Threatening.

REAPPORTIONMENT IS IN SERIOUS DANGER OF DYING AT THIS SESSION.

Los Angeles May Not Get Increased Membership to Which She Has Long Been Entitled—Governor Threatens to End Legislature If Attempt Is Made to Prolong Sitting to Grant Angel City Her Rights.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SACRAMENTO, March 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Appearances today indicate that Los Angeles and San Francisco are not to have equal representation in the Legislature during the next ten years.

The change of heart by the Alameda Senators is said to be above the suspicion that they are holding the anti-apportionment vote together, though some members regard it in that light. It remains to be seen what will transpire when Senator Thompson next assembles the Apportionment Committee, which will not be until Monday.

Another influence that disturbed the plans of the Welch-Finn delegation and the Santa Clara Senators, is the Assembly. It has, it is reported, given Assemblyman Randall, by a promise of forty-five members, authority to say the Assembly will not vote on adjournment until the Legislature has passed the bill. And further that no district of the State is to have any representation in excess of population.

All these things have a direct bearing on the present work of the Legislature, which is to pass a bill to redivide the State into legislative districts. The bill is now in the hands of the Governor. It is in effect that the decree of Hiram the First is issued that the two houses must agree on a date of adjournment or he will exercise his constitutional prerogative of setting the date himself. Further he will not call an extra session to pass an apportionment bill.

Los Angeles has a large interest in apportionment. For many years she has been represented by numbers far below her population. The county has been entitled to more than twenty members for years, yet she has had but fourteen. A new apportionment is necessary to increase the number, which is easily twenty-five and might be stretched to twenty-six. But Los Angeles is content with twenty-four, conceding one to Imperial.

No apportionment means another session of the Legislature with only fourteen members and unless the two Houses agree on some satisfactory division within the next few days the Legislature will be dissolved. It will mean that San Francisco will continue with twenty-seven members. And there is real danger that apportionment may fail at this session. San Francisco does not want it nor do the country members who know their districts and are not anxious to change them.

While Senator Boynton did not introduce the promised adjournment resolution today, it is understood that the Governor named Wednesday, the 25th inst., at noon. Speaker Hewitt still insists that the work cannot be completed before April 1. There are approximately 1500 bills on the files yet and the Senate, by reason of its debating capacity, is working rather slowly on its accumulated work. There are many important measures pending and the tactics of the Senate are such, whether desiring for California's behalf or not, that apportionment may be abandoned or beaten.

Senator Thompson does not confess his action either way will be a signal for California to start his campaign for the anti-injunction bill (S. No. 985) which is the final hope of the labor union lobby. This lobby is now declaring that it did not ask the Governor to veto the blacklist bill because it could not follow it with any request that he veto an anti-boycott bill which was threatened and that the anti-injunction bill is a compromise of the two measures. As a "compromise" it is a strange one because it operates to legalize boycotting and picketing and ties the hands of every employer in the State.

MAILETS GET TRY-OUT.

SACRAMENTO, March 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Experiments are still being made by the Southern Pacific Company with its big Mailet engines on the "pull over the hill." These monster locomotives are intended to relieve the demand for double-headed in the busy freight season. It has been demonstrated that the "wampus" are perfectly adapted to serve as passenger pullers over the summit. A number of additional back-coupled locomotives will arrive, and a type similar to the Mailet now in use but of slightly less weight and having higher driving wheels. They will be used in passenger runs over the mountains. Mailets are now being run over the hill as an experiment on the time of trains Knox 1 and 2. One Mailet pulls a passenger train that requires two ordinary passenger engines.

By the action of Gov. Colquhoun, yesterday in filing without his signature the bill permitting Texas newspapers to exchange advertising for railroad transportation, this measure will become a law in a little less than three months.

INSTRUCTION BEGINS IN APRIL.

National Guard Officers of Various States to Go to Front in Detachments to Learn Service Conditions.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, March 17.—None of the officers of the State militia are to be sent to the front in Texas to receive instructions in military maneuvers, are to report to the instruction camps before April 1.

Each officer will be attached to an officer of corresponding grade from the same arm of the regular service. The War Department is waiting to hear from Gen. Carter before deciding whether many officers of the militia will be allowed to attend instruction work at one time.

HUNTING ACCIDENT.

PAYETTE (IDAHO), March 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The body of E. D. McLaughlin, who resided with his father, a farmer, two miles south of this city, was found dead, suspended on a barbed wire fence Wednesday afternoon, with a bullet hole near the right temple.

McLaughlin, who was a highly respected young man, was about 20 years old, and had gone hunting early in the morning. When the body was found one leg was thrown across the fence, as if he had been in the act of crossing, and it is supposed that his gun was discharged in some manner while he was trying to climb the fence.

The Best Money Deal

This is a high-contrast, black and white photograph of a vertical wooden plank. The image is characterized by deep shadows and bright highlights that emphasize the grain and texture of the wood. The lighting creates a dramatic, almost abstract effect, with the central portion of the plank appearing very dark and the edges catching more light. The overall composition is simple yet visually striking due to the play of light and shadow.

STOCKHOLDERS TO PROFIT.

Maritime Lines to Raise Money Hereafter by Sale of Stock, Rather Than Floating of Bond Issues.

NEW YORK, March 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Wall Street Journal
today says:

It is probable that Union and South Pacific will offer the stockholders valuable subscription rights in con nection with whatever financing is done within the next year or two.

Double-tracking of the Central Pacific has already been provided for, and through the sale of bonds in Paris.

Double-tracking of the Oregon Short Line and the Oregon-Washington line, as well as their extensive construction programs, is as yet to be finished.

Both of the companies are considerably indebted to the Union Pacific.
Provisional of the Union Pacific company and for financing the new undertaking has been made through authorization by an eastern company of a $10,000,000 refunding or consolida tion mortgage. The bond authoriza tion indicated that either the Short Line or the Navigation Company would all $25,000,000 or $30,000,000 of bonds in the near future.

Very strong interests in both prop erties have decided, however, that any financing of the new year or two should be done through sale of stock.

No conclusion has been reached by the respective boards, but in view of the large profit of the new year or two two companies, aggregating over $200, 000,000, and the large annual surplus after dividends shown by each system, it is probable that the new financing through stock will be the Harriman line's policy for some time and that stock will be offered to shareholders considerably below the market price.

MURRIETTA SPRINGS, March 17.—
The Berry's national pastime team was as full of pep in this morning's practice as a school of two-year-old puppy dogs.

After the day's training, the team was camped on the Fish Commission.

Talk about your creaking-the-Dela

Zeke and a couple of wiry, wiry.
It was a sight for sore correspond ents to see gray-haired Dillon and his son-in-law, the sport around the sandy loam, during the first half of the day, and clouting the globe over the hills and faraway, and chasing the saliv ous horseshoe at a 60-horse-power pace.

Enthusiasm and grayer fairly oozed out of the players. Dillon, the coach during a great part of the work up, his keen gray eyes fairly awoke as he watched his Angel "hopefuls" as they trained.

One of the boys, a training student, said: "The fact that the boys are running in opposite directions will do away with the hard strain that would result from racing side by side.

The boys will be distributed along the course previous to the start, and as soon as each has received the let ter that is to be conveyed, and finished his mile, he will be returned to the city in an automobile.

In front of each Y.M.C.A. build ing the starter will stand, holding a revolver in one hand and telephone in the other. Each will give the "Are you ready?" and "Get on your marks," almost simultaneously, and then as the pistol cracks they will start away on the long grind.

At the starting line the best time is to receive a handsome loving cup.
Each member of the team will be presented with a medal. The beach town boys have a slight advantage, owing to their outdoor training. The Los Angeles boys have practiced mostly on the inside Y.M.C.A. track.

DE PALMA AND TETZLAFF READY FOR MOTOR DUEL ON PIE-PAN.

RALPH DE PALMA in the Fiat
"ninety" and Teddy Tetzlaff in the road-record-breaking Lezlar, are to start in the century dash at the Motordrome tomorrow afternoon.

The race is to be sent away at 3 o'clock. A world record may be unmade.

Ripping around the boards of the piepan at a terrific clip this pair of speedsters have put in the week test ing their machines and are ready for the dash that will decide the question of championship.

World champions are made in a min

tion as to whether Tetzlaff has a right to fight for race track honors. His friends are satisfied that he will win.

For the first time in the history of automobile racing the champion road racer and the champion track racer are pitted against each other.

This contest should be a hummer from the standpoint of the starter's pistol.
Walter Hempel, manager of the Mo tordrome, says the race is to be one of the most thrilling ever witnessed on the course. He says the Oldfield Brazz contest will be eclipsed by the De Palma-Tetzlaff match.

Every motor fan in Los Angeles is anxious to see the contest. The two speed kings, who have figured in some of the most exciting races in this coun in shape for a contest that should bring out the best there is in either

ERIN'S SAINT
WELL HONORED.

The Day of Patrick Bright in Los Angeles.

Climax Is the Banquet of the Hibernian Order.

Judge Dooling and the Bishop Fire Gathering.

Los Angeles celebrated St. Patrick's Day in pomp and ceremony yesterday with high masses in all the Catholic churches in the city.

The climax of the bright drama of the day came with the time-honored banquet of the Ancient Order of Hi bernians given in Walker's Theater.

The grand banquet hall on the fifth floor of the building was jammed to its last inch of capacity by the sons and daughters of Erin, and the occa sion was made particularly memorable by the splendid orations of Bishop Conroy and Superior Court Judge M.
C. Dooling of San Benito county.

Mayor Alexander was the guest of honor in the presence of many honored guests, among whom were Tim Mur phy, sporting editor of the Boston Globe, and Hugh McCreesh, treasurer of the Red Sox, both thoroughbred Irish, as their names would imply.

They are old friends of Bishop Con roy.

The programs following the ban quet were as follows: A splendid

G. A. J. Howard rendered "Killarney" and Miss Maud Kearney sang "The Swallowtail." The program was con ducted by the famous pianist of Thomas Davis, entitled, "Who Fears to Speak of Ninety-eight."

Dr. P. J. Conroy, president of St. Vincent's College, was intro duced to act as toastmaster in a fel lows speech by J. R. Dwyer, president of the Hibernian society. In his re marks Dr. Conroy read from The Times the statement made by John Redmond at the meeting of the National Home rule party in London, yesterday, in which the Irish leader asserted that Home rule for Ireland was now a certainty.

That the thousands of years of quar rels and hatred that have existed be tween Saxon and Celt was at least temporarily ended and "buried" at least deep in the ocean of oblivion.

The statement was greeted with cheers.

Glass presented Mayor Alexander to the banqueters as a man who had a right to participate in a St.
Patrick's Day celebration, for said the toastmaster, "The Saxon and the Irishman are not an Irishman, he is a Celt and a member of our race."

The Mayor made the duties of citizenship and declared that Los Angeles is now the best city in the world and destined soon to be one of the greatest.

It was reserved for Judge Dooling to sweep the audience from its feet in his eloquent and unbounded outburst of enthusiasm.

the runners and take the time of each

NIGHT FIRE DRAWS CROWD

Ten Thousand Dollar Blaze in Mason Block.

Smoke Does Harm in Num ber of the Stores.

Supposed to Have Started in the Basement.

About $10,000 is estimated to be the loss caused by fire and smoke in the Mason Building, Fourth and Broadway
at 1:55 o'clock last night, the blaze originating in the basement of the store of Skinner & Knecht, No. 222
West Fourth street. The heavier part of the damage was caused by smoke and water, the blaze being confined to the basement, where it is supposed to have been started by rats, or mice gnawing matches. Several barrels of matches were taken out of the bas ement by the fire department, after
the place had been flooded.

M. I. Seibert, a young clerk in the cigar store of Skinner & Knecht, was the first to discover the fire, when he was startled by smoke curling up from the floor under his feet. He called House Engineer William E. French
who was taking the night watchman's place during the latter's illness, and French hurriedly went in a fire alarm
over the telephone.

DRAWS CROWD.

Owing to the location of the fire in the very heart of the shopping district, a large force of police and fire de partment of fire-fighting apparatus from that department, were at once turned out. The sending out of the police was none too soon, as the central loca tion of the fire at the very heart of the theaters, caused the assembling of many thousands of people, and the police soon had their hands full keep ing the curious out of the danger of falling glass and from under the feet of the plunging fire-engine hoses.

Smoke from the basement of the build ing found its way to the very top most floor, where it spread out, giv ing the entire structure the appearance of being on fire.

The first fire hose was run up along the fire escape ladders over the Earl V. Lewis store of photography supplies, No. 228 West Fourth street, the fire appearing to be central in the office rooms over this place.

At the same time, M. G. Egan, a young employee of the Charles F. Nie man jewelry store company, in fifth office room 302, found himself cut off by the smoke on the second floor and made his way to the fire escape platform, from which he was rescued by a fire man put up by Fire Company No. 3, which also ran a line of hose to the top of this fire escape, and coiled around the corner of the building on the Broadway side.

The firemen, however, found no fire to fight on the upper floors, although deluge of water was poured into the heart of dense volumes of smoke. It was only after an hour of hard work
that the fire was discovered to be con fined to the basement, where it is supposed to have originated in the smokes under the cigar store, as al ready mentioned.

It was impossible to obtain an accu rate estimate of the losses last night, owing to the large number of tenants in the building and the character of their property.

SHAFT DAMAGED.

The elevator shaft of the Mason Building, up which the fire had begun to make its way, was damaged by the deluge of water poured into the heart of dense volumes of smoke. It was only after an hour of hard work
that the fire was discovered to be con fined to the basement, where it is supposed to have originated in the smokes under the cigar store, as al ready mentioned.

As the automobile neared the cross ing at Sixth street and Burlington av enue, Miss Nunn, on her way home from the theater, was alighting from a street car, and as she was about to proceeding automobile, became fright ened and ran in front of it.

There was a piercing scream from the street car, and the motorist was being dragged a distance of twenty or thirty feet before the chauffeur could stop his car. The child was picked up in a minute, and was taken to the Hotel Woodward and hurried to the Receiving Hospital, with the ma chine carrying the Sargent party fol lowing to the interior of the room and relieved such injuries that she was un conscious when picked up, and she died in a few minutes after being placed on the Receiving Hospital op erating table.

It was not until after her death that Miss Nunn was identified. When she, sitting on her porch, heard the awful cry of the stricken girl, Miss Crosley left the neighbors to run out to the scene of the accident and re sponded to the interior of her home, dis wishing to see the gruesome sight or hear anything about it. Some time later, however, it occurred to Miss Crosley that might be her little servant who had met with an acci dent, and she rode down to the Re ceiving Hospital after the show when she hour in vain for the child's return home.

Miss Crosley would not venture in the operating room, but the girl's hat was shown her, and this was readily recognized as that of Gertrude Nunn.
Then, striving hard for control, Miss Crosley played the Annabelle drama and looked sadly down on the white face, stained with blood.

"Yes, that's Gertrude," she said, and turned away, the corners of her mouth twisting.

Waterbury's chauffeur, is held to be blameless for the accident.

"I was running between ten and fif teen miles an hour," he told Motor cycle Patrolman Stearleade, and was almost even with the car when it stopped and the girl stepped out.

"If she had stood still, I would not have gone near her, but she started to run in front of me. I was so close that I could not pass behind her for the car, and I tried to shoot ahead of her between her and the curb, but she continued running and was struck."

Ten Thousand Dollar Blaze in Mason Block.

Smoke Does Harm in Num
ber of the Stores.

Supposed to Have Started in the Basement.

About $10,000 is estimated to be the
Mason Building, Fourth and Broadway
at 1:55 o'clock last night, the blaze
originating in the basement of the store of Skinner & Knecht, No. 222
West Fourth street. The heavier part
of the damage was caused by smoke
and water, the blaze being confined to the basement, where it is supposed to have been started by rats, or mice
gnawing matches. Several barrels of matches were taken out of the bas ement by the fire department, after
the place had been flooded.

M. I. Seibert, a young clerk in the cigar store of Skinner & Knecht, was the first to discover the fire, when he was startled by smoke curling up from the floor under his feet. He called House Engineer William E. French
who was taking the night watchman's
place during the latter's illness, and French hurriedly went in a fire alarm
over the telephone.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

EDUCATIONAL CAMPAIGN IS ON.

Auditorium Filled With Those Who Favor Bonds.

Speakers Point Out Crown City's Manifest Need.

(Office of The Times, 28 S. Raymond avenue.)

PARADENA, March 18.—A large audience congregated in the High School auditorium last night and listened to the many reasons why the bond election which is to be held next Friday should be approved by the people of the Pasadena school district to bond the district for $500,000 to build a high school, build a group of seven buildings and construct a new grammar school.

The trend of most of the talk was to the effect that Pasadena is sadly in the rear as compared with other Southern California cities in the matter of suitable school buildings and particularly a Polytechnic and classical high school.

The most interesting part of the meeting was the illustrated address by Norman Marsh, the Los Angeles architect who has designed many of the high school buildings in Southern California and who has drawn plans for Pasadena's proposed new high school group.

The first picture shown was that of the San Diego group located on a tract of forty acres of land. In all that city has spent $25,000 on buildings and has another building to cost $200,000 in prospect. "San Diego has provided for the future," said Marsh, "and has enough ground secured to build enough buildings for a great city."

The next group shown was that of the Hollywood High School, which is located on 12-1/2 acres of land, with seven fine buildings, costing $250,000 in addition to the ground. The Hollywood group consists of an administration building, gymnasium, woman's domestic science hall, shops, science hall and literary hall.

Rollands High School buildings were shown on the next picture. They occupy eighteen acres of ground with ample room for growth. The next slide showed the Pomona group. "Pomona is handicapped for room," said Marsh. "They had ten acres and thought it too much ground and sold five acres and now they are sorry. They have four buildings on a great city."

The last picture was of the proposed Pasadena group, showing the ground plan with the large campus located on the Rose Villa site on East Colorado street. The buildings are to face on Colorado street. The administration or central building in the middle, with three buildings on either side making a total of seven buildings. In the rear there are to be a number of small plots of land for agricultural and horticultural work and a big athletic field.

The estimated cost of the buildings is $300,000 exclusive of the furniture and equipment for the shops and science hall. The main auditorium will seat 1400.

The proposed buildings are none too large for Pasadena, said Marsh. "Our present building was designed for nothing else than a place to fit students for the university. The records show that only 5 per cent of the high school students ever enter the universities and there should be some provision made for teaching the other 95 per cent some trade or occupation whereby they can earn a living." No other city in Southern California today is so badly in need of a suitable high school as Pasadena. They have a very large number of students who are financially able to complete their education.

was certainly a fitting place to have an address on wild animals, the kind which are usually seen in circus tents.

WELCOME NEW PREACHER.

The big St. Patrick's love feast planned for the members of the First Universalist Church last night was turned into a welcoming reception when the Rev. A. R. Tillman, the new pastor of the church, suddenly and unexpectedly put on his appearance. He was expected in the city yesterday, but his train was late and he did not arrive until after the dinner of Irish stories and other good Irish dishes were spread, but he received a cordial greeting anyway, and the feast went merrily on.

READY FOR OPENING.

Pasadena's exhibit in the big Pacific Land & Products Exposition which opens in Los Angeles tonight, is spick and span and ready for the inspection of the multitudes which will visit the great show. The exhibit will be in charge of C. W. Dewar, a member of the Pasadena Gardeners' Association. The booth has been completely renovated and represents Southern California people with a background of mountain scenery.

MONROVIA, March 17.—St. Patrick's Day possesses new and permanent interest for high school students who were addressed this morning by Rev. J. J. Sheehy, pastor of the Church of the Immaculate Conception.

After a brief biographical and historical sketch of the Emerald Isle's patron saint, Father Sheehy outlined in dramatic strokes Ireland's history and her hopes.

Handling his subject with the fervor that only a son of Erin long exiled from her green shores to be homesick is capable, he took his youthful auditors on a journey replete with beauty and fraught with romance.

From peasant cottages where the tang of peat smoke hangs in the air, to feudal castles that have crowned the heights for a thousand years, the storied way continued, with byways rambling through folk-lore land. In the rear there are to be a number of small plots of land for agricultural and horticultural work and a big athletic field.

The estimated cost of the buildings is $300,000 exclusive of the furniture and equipment for the shops and science hall. The main auditorium will seat 1400.

No other city in Southern California today is so badly in need of a suitable high school as Pasadena. They have a very large number of students who are financially able to complete their education.

Prof. Hamilton, superintendent of public schools, made a short talk, in which he stated that during the past two years he has been in the habit of permitting boys who have left Pasadena and gone to Los Angeles to enter the Polytechnic High School. "Why do they do this?" he asked. "They have told me that they wanted to learn a trade so they could make a living."

REDONDO BEACH, March 17.—The production of the opera, "Cinderella," given by the pupils of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school packed the hall last night and Wednesday evening in Whitehall Hall. Elaborate costumes, pretty scenic effects and splendid singing on the part of the young people who presented it, thoroughly pleased the audiences.

WOULD DREDGE THE CHANNELS.

Beach Engineer Favors Plan to Divert Floods.

Present Banks of San Gabriel a Mile Apart.

Work of Improvement Would Cost Nominal Sum.

(LONG BEACH, March 17.—City Engineer Dewey, who with the Supervisor and County Engineer, has been devoting considerable time of late to the flood conditions in the northwest district, says that he favors the dredging of the channels along the storm water which ever winter overflows several thousand acres, and a right of way for these channels should be secured at once.

There is some controversy as to just what the river channel should be, and it is the Cerritos slough bed and others that it is the old San Gabriel River channel. Engineer Dewey is of the opinion that it is the entire county, and the bluff on the west side of Long Beach, a width of a mile.

At present there are three different channels within this district, and he thinks that instead of controlling the high water in one channel and let it flow into the other, it would be wise to secure control of a good-sized tract of lowland flooded in times of high water and prevent the deposit of settling basin to prevent the deposit of silt in the harbor. Mr. Dewey is optimistic of the future and says that the San Gabriel River, which is a harbor will be all too small when the country reaches maturity and these channels open up additional water frontage whose value would be incalculable. He is of the opinion that the expense now of securing a right of way for defined channels would be small.

His ranch lies on the Pacific Electric and Salt Lake railroads. The Salt Lake officials said that they would be unable to repair the damage done to the Arroyo Seco bridge near the ostrich ranch and would have to build a new bridge. NEWS BRIEVES.

Calvin Clark, a laborer at the Craig ship plant, was badly injured this afternoon on the steamer Navajo, by a heavy steel plate falling and striking him in the back. He was taken to a local hospital, and physicians say his injuries are serious.

Carl Eldred, aged 14, a telegraph messenger, rode in front of a Pacific Electric car, carrying a wheel, and his wheel was ground to pieces. Young Eldred was thrown clear of the track but was struck by one of the journals. The back of his head was injured. The lad says a south-bound train had just passed and he heard no gong or whistle as he started to cross the track.

SOUNDINGS ARE SATISFACTORY.

DEPTH GREATER THAN IT WAS THIRTEEN MONTHS AGO.

Any Silt Deposited Is in the Sillier Waters in Front of San Pedro, Where Four Feet Has Been Washed Since Former Measurements Were Made.

WILMINGTON, March 17.—A series of soundings in the inner harbor just completed by the Banning Company, and extending from a point opposite the foot of Brent street in Wilmington to Deadman's Island, in the outer harbor, has developed the fact that the east channel from the turning basin at the southwest corner of Morrison Island to Brent street, has a depth throughout of nineteen feet, which is just twelve inches deeper than thirteen months ago, at which time the Consolidated dredging Company finished its work of dredging the channel, through to the mills.

From the turning basin to Deadman's Island, however, it developed that where a year or so ago there was twenty-five feet of water at low tide, there is now but twenty-one feet, which is said to be due to the fact that sand and silt is carried out by the rapidly-flowing tides, and deposited in the sillier waters in front of San Pedro.

This result is very encouraging to the shipping interests of Wilmington, as it puts an end for all time to a constant and uncertain condition that the inner harbor was impracticable, owing to the alleged great difficulty that would be experienced in making a depth sufficient for navigation by deep-draft vessels.

At a special meeting of the directors of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce, this afternoon, a resolution was passed endorsing the organization to use its best efforts toward assisting in finding some method of preventing the inner harbor scourings from being ascertained in the outer harbor, but after considerable discussion it was finally decided that this is a problem for the city and government engineers to solve and the resolution was ordered filed.

Ladies Participating in the Mothers' Congress Are Being Shown Considerable Attention by Matrons.

SANTA MONICA, March 17.—Seaside women of the Parent-Teachers' Association were busy today, receiving and entertaining the delegates who came from the several cities of Southern California to hear or participate in the reciprocity proceedings of the Mothers' Congress, which held an all-day session at the Presbyterian Church.

After an address of welcome by City Superintendent Rebock and the response by the president of the State Federation, Mrs. A. L. Hamilton of Pasadena, the guests were entertained at luncheon, which was served in the church parlors. The afternoon and evening sessions were addressed by delegates who discussed the different phases of the work of the parents and teachers affiliated with the association.

FINANCIAL TRICKS.

Santa Monica will be the first day of July have two automobile fire trucks, if the voters at a special election soon to be held endorse the recommendation of the Fire Commission, as approved by the Council. The municipal managers have decided upon calling the election. The people will be asked to authorize the sale of bonds to the sum of $25,000. This will provide for two engines and equip them with hose and chemical fire-fighting apparatus.

WOULD OPEN STREET.

It has been recommended that the City Council treat with the trolley line relative to the purchase of the national strip of land lying between Trolleyway and the old Santa Fe tracks, and extending from Pier avenue to Hollister. This is to be converted into a cross-city boulevard, which would relieve the congestion along Speedway and Main street. In favor of the opening of this property for boulevard purposes it is urged that as no houses or improvements are on it now the purchase could be made without loss. The strip of land could be made into a handsome esplanade, bordered with ornamental trees. The idea is meeting with considerable favor among property owners.

LINES O' SIGHT BOTHER COURT

Geometry and Optics Fail to Settle Auto Speed.

Visual Angles and Refractive Points Complicate.

So Justice Will Go and Line
It Up for Himself.

The sciences of optometry and geometry were handled without much success yesterday in Justice Summerfield's court, when much discussion of angle, reflection, refraction and points of vision failed to settle satisfactorily how far and how well a motorist's policeman can see with the naked eye. As a result the court, with the District Attorney and the persons most interested, will spin out on Wilshire boulevard on Monday morning and decide whether an automobile speed can be ascertained by a barn, a constable, two trees and another constable.

All this followed upon the death arrest, for speeding, on February 2, of William Bierwatter, chauffeur for Stanley Anderson, manager of the Hotel Hollywood, by Officers Blaylock and Samuels. Anderson, answering for Bierwatter, first entered pleas of not guilty on both counts. Yesterday he changed his plea to guilty on the first charge, but announced his intention to fight the second, on the ground that the timing device of the officers was ineffectual.

Through Charles Hopper, its former secretary, the Automobile Club of Southern California took up cudgels for Anderson's behalf. He was represented in court by Attorney Edward C. Kuster. Kuster is local representative for the A.A.A., as well as attorney and director in the local club.

IN A TRAP.
On the day of Bierwatter's arrest he had been sent to Santa Monica Canyon, to bring back a picnic party to the Hotel Hollywood. On Wilshire boulevard, between the tracks of the Los Angeles Pacific line and Winchester avenue, he ran into a trap set by the officers. They accused him of going thirty-nine miles an hour, which he maintained in court was absurd. After his release on his own recognizance he went back to the canyon to get his employer. The two, according to his testimony, ran the needle of the speedometer up to just twenty miles an hour, the legal limit, and held it there when they came to the trap. The officers arrested Bierwatter again, setting his speed at thirty-three miles.

The officers, when examined, stated that their custom is for one to stand under cover near the intersection of Winchester avenue and the boulevard, while the other, with a stop-watch in each hand, posted himself about 150 feet from the boulevard, a little toward the tracks. A section of road eleven-twentieths of a mile long, was measured out on Wilshire, marked by a post and a tree.

LINING IT UP.
The man with the watches sighted a car approaching the trap, more than half a mile away, lined it off between the post and a barn across the

FREDERICKS' STATEMENT.

I sent Messrs. Ford and Horton to observe the contest in order to ascertain whether or not it was a prize fight. After they had gone a statement in a local newspaper, being an interview with Wolgast, was brought to my attention, which showed conclusively that the contest was a prize fight.

Accordingly I telephoned Mr. Ford to inform the managers that I believed this was a prize fight, and that I would have them arrested if they went on with it. After some parleying they decided that they would hold the contest, and maintained that the statement was not correct and was unauthorized.

Of course, I had no means of using sufficient physical force to drive eight thousand men out of the pavilion. This is a law office, and we only pass on legal points.

In pursuance of my belief that this is a prize fight, I have caused the arrest of the principals and the matter will be fairly tried out in the court.

I want to say right here, however, that as District Attorney of eight years' experience in this county, I demand that the Legislature now in session either give us a decent prize fight law to work under, or repeal the one we have.

WOLGAST'S FUTURE.

BY J. ALEX SLOAN.

Little Ad Wolgast is a much improved fighter since the last time he was seen in action in Los Angeles.

Manager Tom Jones says the boy has increased in physical strength, and is 50 per cent. cleverer than when he fought Memsic a little over a year ago.

There is no doubt but that Manager Thomas knows what he is talking about. Wolgast could never have handled Memsic in the finished way he did today, were he not a much at the "trap" out on Wilshire boulevard, where a barn and a tree and a post or two introduce perspective complications that will make it necessary for Justice Summerfield to go out there and line things up for himself.

better man than when last seen in action in Los Angeles.
Little Ad's foot work and defensive tactics probably showed the greatest improvement, but it would be hard to pick out any phase of his work which didn't show pronounced advancement.
In every round of the fight Wolgast went after Memsic, with a determination that showed the confidence he has in himself. He is more cautious in his advance and attack, but more ferocious when he gets within range of his opponent.

Wolgast's judgment of distance is also much improved and he seldom wasted any of the vital energy in wild swings.

BY AD WOLGAST.
I could have finished the fight any time I wanted to when the referee called it off. I had Memsic at my mercy and I am glad for the sake of the game that it was ended before it became necessary for me to inflict any more punishment on Memsic than I did. I believe I was entitled to the decision if ever anyone was and at the time when it was given by Referee Eytton. My manager told me to slow up and not set too fast a pace after the eighth round was over, but I didn't have time to take advantage of the advice.

BY GEORGE MEMSIC.
No one was any more surprised than I was when Referee Eytton called off the fight. I believe I would have gone the twenty rounds if I hadn't won before the limit was reached. My manager instructed me to slow up and lead Wolgast on as far as to the him and then go in any try to win. Did I show any signs of being tired when I went to my corner? But maybe it is better for all concerned, for I would sooner stand most anything than see the sport sac-

FIGHTERS AND OFFICIALS UNDER ARREST ON CHARGE OF CONDUCTING PRIZE FIGHT.

After Wolgast Outpoints Memsic in Nine Rounds Referee Eytton Stops the Fight, and All Parties Must Appear for Hearing Today.

EVERYBODY LIABLE.

MORE THAN 8000 spectators at the boxing contest yesterday are liable to arrest and prosecution for a misdemeanor.

Under the present boxing law, it is a misdemeanor to attend a "prize fight," and a felony either to take part, referee or promote one.

If arrests were made on the misdemeanor, some of the most prominent business and professional men in Los Angeles would be in court today.

Partial test of the law in the preliminary hearing may decide what action the District Attorney will take, or he may wait until the trial of those under arrest is completed.

TASTING THE DREGS.

BY HARRY C. CARR.

Ad Wolgast and George Memsic, the two boxers who contested for the championship of the world yesterday; Tom McCarey, the promoter, and Charles Eytton, the referee, are to be arraigned this morning at 11 o'clock before Township Justice Sidney N. Reeve on a felony charge of engaging in a "prize fight or ring contest."

The prosecution is instituted under an old law providing a maximum penalty for a violation of three years in State's prison and a fine of $1000.

The arrest will probably result in a test of the law.

The District Attorney, upon learning for the first time yesterday afternoon that a boxing contest was in contemplation, sent Deputy District Attorney Joseph Ford, Chief Deputy G. Ray Horton and Detective S. L. Brown to the Vernon arena with instructions to prevent any contemplated violation of the law.

The two deputies conferred with Mr. McCarey, the promoter, who showed them the signed articles which called for a "boxing contest," and which provided that Wolgast was to get a certain sum of money, win, lose or draw.

PAID IN ADVANCE.

As the two men were thus shown to be fighting for a certain stipulated hire and not for a prize, it seemed not to be a prize fight in contemplation.

The only possibility that remained for a breach of the law was in the degree of ferocity with which the contest was conducted.

This of course could not be determined until the contest had taken place. These things being communicated to the district attorney by telephone from the ring side, the affair was allowed to proceed.

When the referee stopped the contest and proclaimed Memsic winner in the ninth round, the promoters and boxers had no idea but that the trouble portion of the programme was over.

About 6:30 o'clock last night, however, they were informed by telephone that Capt. Fredericks had ordered their immediate arrest.

Memsic was found at his cigar stand on Spring street and Wolgast was picked up at a hotel. McCarey and Greenwood and Charles Eytton were notified and they all met in Justice Reeve's court-room in New High street. The court-room was dim and half-lighted and the scene was a dismal one.

Both the fighters and their managers were scared sick. Tom Jones, Ad's manager, sat nervously whirling a big silver-headed cane and mopping his brow. Every time any one spoke to him he backed back the shortest answer he could think of.

"Is this going to interfere with your plans for going away?" some one asked Jones.

"No," he growled.

"Gee," remonstrated Ad. "That's no way to answer."

"That's all the answer I'm going to make," said Jones. "No!"

Ad sat in the little stuffy courtroom with his manager, while Memsic, who looked as though he had been trying to butt head through a thrashing machine, stood out in the dark hall, a very sorrowful and sore young person.

He finally came into the courtroom, too, and talked over the day with Wolgast.

Presently, Deputy District Attorney Joe Ford arrived with the warrants—which event had an electrical and alarming effect upon the performance.

"Where's judge?" asked one of the fighters in a growl of alarm.

"Over there by the table," was the answer.

"What that little guy—go on," Wolgast and Memsic seemed to think a judge ought to be at least in the heavyweight division.

The Man With the Stiffest Punch.
Dist. Atty. Fredericks, who delivered a solar-plexus blow right after the fight, and Manager McCarey (above) offering to put up a fifty-thousand-dollar bond at the beginning as a guaranty that it was only a boxing exhibition.

CONDOLING TOGETHER AFTER THE BIG FIGHT.

MEMSIC: Four or five years ago I think I could have stood a chance to beat you, Ad, but today there was nothing to it. There ain't any of them can touch you.
Wolgast: You are the only boy who ever had us worried, George. You ought to go back East and take in those short round fights; you'd do great at that game there.

BRINK INVOLVED.

Al. Greenwood came to court expecting to sign for the whole outfit. It was found necessary, however, to have a second bondsman. At the frantic telephoning, John Brink was located. He and Greenwood signed the bonds of all four defendants. The amount of the bonds was fixed at $1000.

When the bondsmen had assembled, a deputy sheriff came to the court room door and called out Wolgast.

Ad turned pale and jumped as though some one had given him an electric shock.

"Memsic," the deputy added.

Hugging together for sympathy, the two boxers slid through the door like two bad little boys about to be spanked.

They handed them their warrants of arrest and told them they might go. They almost fell down stairs to get away in their eagerness to get away. The time for their arraignment was set for 11 o'clock this morning.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Members of the Consolidation Commission and Water Board made an automobile tour of the San Fernando valley yesterday to consider the problem of annexing territory and distributing the surplus water supply of the Los Angeles aqueduct.

Hundreds of residents visited the City Hall and the offices of the Park board yesterday and were supplied with shampoos grown in the city.

A watchman is to be appointed at the City Hall to register all persons who are admitted between the hours of 6 o'clock at night and 6 o'clock in the morning.

Henry Shaw, suspected of being Jack the Ripper, was let off with suspended sentence yesterday owing to his apparent weakness of mind.

By the provisions of a deed filed in the office of the County Recorder yesterday, George Stockton Philpaw and Gladys Eleanor Philpaw transferred all right and title to their son, Neil James Philpaw, to Mrs. Rosalie Cella De Freitas of No. 2123 Fargo street.

Heirs of Jacob Miller filed notice in the Probate Court yesterday that they will contest the will of their father, a ground of his unsound mind and undue influence.

Judge Rives held yesterday that a will attached to a trunk by a tag was void as it related to the contents of that trunk. William T. Myers left his trunk and its contents to Mrs. Mary W. White.

At the City Hall.

SIZING UP A GREATER CITY.

OFFICIALS INSPECT THE SAN FERNANDO VALLEY.

Consolidation Commission and Water Board Makes All Day Tour Over Rich Lands to the North and Are Warmly Received by Residents Who Approve Plans.

That a large part of the rich San Fernando Valley is ready for consolidation with Los Angeles was evident to members of the Consolidation Commission and Water Board who made an automobile tour to the aqueduct reservoir site yesterday. They were met by enthusiastic residents of the valley and were given a dinner on the "Parker" ranch, now owned by L. P. Torrey.

Mr. Boruff proposed that the city acquire 2000 acres of land adjoining the reservoir site where there will be an artificial lake, almost as large as some of the famous natural bodies of water that have been made beautiful by the surrounding landscape. He believes the city should have public grounds there for aviation meets and a place for big outdoor events, which will become more popular as Los Angeles increases.

The party looked over the big reservoir site, which was purchased from the Porter ranch and then visited a smaller reservoir location to the south of the ranch. They then rode through a thousand acres of fertile lands and discussed its value to Los Angeles as a location for suburban homes, if the surplus Owens River water is distributed there.

The party included City Clerk Handley, D. K. Edwards, S. G. C. Graham, Supervisor Butler, Maj. Henry T. Lee, Ben Matthews and Engineers Muhlenberg, Hamlin and John H. Quinton.

They left the City Hall early in the morning and spent the entire day in the valley. They went out over the road systems, through the rapidly growing suburbs of Glendale, Tropic, Burbank and San Fernando. They passed through the great area of Lankershim and Van Nuys ranch lands, which are now being street car service to Los Angeles.

The trip was made for the purpose of gathering data to aid the Consolidation Commission in formulating recommendations for the consolidation of certain territory with the city. The distribution of the aqueduct water, not needed for domestic use will be one of the chief factors in determining this question.

SHAMROCK DAY.

WEARIN' O' THE GREEN. St. Patrick's Day at the City Hall took on something of a holiday aspect yesterday, although possibly the Irishman does not predominate in official life here as he does in some of the eastern cities. The police force was pretty unanimously decorated. Park Superintendent Sherer brought lots of shamrocks to the City Hall and the "real thing" was in demand all day. Scores of visitors came to carry away a leaf or a branch.

Faded shamrocks were left on the desks of such city officials as have made their descent from the Emerald Isle known. Hundreds of shamrocks were given away at the offices of the Park Board, across the street and at the parks.

City officials were generally off duty in the afternoon, and many had Arbor Day engagements, others went on the consolidation excursion to San Fernando Valley, but no one felt under the suspicion of having been at Vern.

CITY HALL GUARD.

WATCHMAN AT NIGHT. Los Angeles may, if it desires, return to that primitive hamlet condition when the watchman called the hours of the night from the City Hall tower and announced that "all's well." The Board of Public Works yesterday, decided to employ a man who shall be on duty at the side entrance from 6 o'clock at night until 6 o'clock in the morning.

It will be his duty to keep a register and secure the names of all who come and go. Someone's ingenuity will be called upon to devise a proper pass word. The idea is on "has been suggested, but that is too easy to guess for anyone who knows Los Angeles. "Shoo-Gab" is a word that contains the initials of all the present Councilmen and that would do if the wrong persons would not obtain the key. The watchman is to receive a salary of $75 per month.

CLOSED INCIDENT.

LELAND TO SETTLE. The Finance Committee of the Council yesterday recommended that Auditor Myers make a demand upon former City Clerk Leland for the $113 shortage discovered in his accounts by the Investigating Committee and that upon payment his last salary warrant, which was held up by the committee, be released.

The recommendations of the Investigating Committee as to the method of keeping funds were contained in City Clerk Dave Carroll's report.

ported that the changes had already been made. The method of handling the checks deposited by bidders is to enter them all in a book and then have them endorsed by City Clerk Handley and placed in the city vault. Chairman Washburn of the committee criticized the practice of endorsing the checks, but said he was willing to leave that responsibility to the City Clerk if he chose to do it that way.

A bill for hospital services in the case of Policeman F. L. Coe, who was injured while on duty, gave the committee some concern. The total amount of the bill is $222.75 and while the committee was in favor of giving good care to city employees they were alarmed by the costliness of hospital attention. The chief item in the bill was $100 for ten weeks at a cost of $400. No action was taken.

CITY HALL EXCHANGE.

NEW TELEPHONE SERVICE. The Finance Committee decided yesterday to install a telephone exchange at the City Hall. It is an improvement that has been greatly needed as the departments have no connection except through central. A great deal of business has been lost by city employees in answering calls that came to the wrong department. The change will also be a great accommodation to the public calling on city business.

Supply Clerk Baker surprised the Finance Committee by showing them that it would be cheaper than the present system of independent trunk lines to each of the offices. An arrangement will be made with the telephone companies so that the city will enjoy its present free service of a certain number of lines as provided for by ordinance.

At the Courthouse.

Parents Deed A Child Away. Transferring all right and title in a child, as one would dispose of a bit of land by deed and bonds, is something new in the history of Los Angeles county. In fact, the human document sent to the office of County Recorder Logan yesterday, for record, has never been duplicated in the history of the office, so far as any of the attaches know.

The instrument is made out in the form of a regular deed, and by virtue of its provisions, George Stockton Philpaw and his wife, Gladys Eleanor Philpaw, transfer all of their parental and other rights in Noel Ernest Philpaw, to Mrs. Rosalie Cella De Freitas, who resides at No. 2123 Fargo street. The deed was accompanied by no explanation except to have the same filed, and enclosed in the letter with the document was one dollar, the regular filing fee.

This instrument made March 3, 1911, he seen George Stockton Philpaw and Gladys Eleanor Philpaw, of the county of Los Angeles, State of California, the parties of the first part, and Rosalie Cella De Freitas, party of the second part.

"Witnesseth, that the said parties of the first part and in consideration of the love and affection which the said parties of the first part have and bear unto said party of the second part, as also for the better protection, said party of the second part, do by these presents give, grant, alien and confirm unto the said party of the second part, and to her heirs, assigns and assigns forever, a certain child, being in the said County of Los Angeles, State of California, and particularly described as follows:

"One male child, aged 21 months, and named Noel Ernest, son of George Stockton Philpaw and his wife, Gladys Eleanor Philpaw."

"Together with all and singular the hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto in anywise appertaining thereof."

"To have and to hold all and singular the said child, together with the appurtenances and privileges therein with incident, under the said party of the second part her heirs and assigns forever."

The deed is signed and witnessed by the parents of the child, and attested by Anna Morgan, a notary public.

It is claimed that the only way to legally secure the offspring of another in California, is by the adoption of the child, and that the deed although executed in due form, is not enforceable as would be a proceeding of adoption. The instrument was filed in the office of the County Recorder.

WILL CONTEST BEGUN. BY HEIRS OF JACOB MILLER. When the matter of granting letters of administration upon the estate of Jacob Miller came up in Judge Rives' court, yesterday, the petition of Henry Miller, a son, it developed that a contest of the will of Miller had been filed by Henry Miller and Clara Zarr, a granddaughter. Two daughters, Mrs. Emma Bennett and Mrs. Jennie Price, produced what purported to be the will of their father, bearing date May 4, 1908, when Miller was 75 years of age.

The petition for letters of administration placed the value of the estate at $20,000, but the contestants allege that the property left by their father was not less than $50,000 in value.

The son and granddaughter, in their contest, set out the usual grounds that Miller was old and infirm at the time of the drawing of what purports to be his will, with the further statement that he was under the domination of John H. Wallace, an attorney. The hearing of the contest was set for March 31.

AN ODD WILL.

Judge Rives yesterday decided that a will attached to a tag on a trunk was a legal conveyance so far as the contents of that particular trunk were concerned, although the manner of its filing was out of the ordinary. The question arose in the probate of the will of William T. Myers, who died in this city January 18, leaving an estate valued at $2000.

It was shown that attached to a trunk owned by Myers was a bill of lading containing a disposition of his Los Angeles residence, 1910.

At Myers' death this trunk and contents I bequeath to my friend, Mrs. Mary W. White, at San Miguel, California.

It was shown that the only contents of the trunk were a lot of silverware and odds and ends of wearing apparel, and there are rumors that there is a valuable diamond in this unusual method of bequeathing property. Myers' wife was divorced, and the will states that he had been provided for. The property outside of the trunk and its contents, if there is any money value attached thereto, is bequeathed to a son of the testator, Walter F. Myers.

CASE OF CASH.

SANITY WILL BE TESTED. John P. Cash, a human derelict, minus a part of the left leg, charged with shooting and killing William H. Harris, colored, February 14, just to "see how it would look to see him fall," was in Judge Willis' court yesterday to answer to the information.

There is a serious doubt in the mind of the court and the District Attorney as to whether Cash is legally responsible for the killing of Harris. In order to determine his sanity, it was ordered that on March 24 a jury be empaneled to decide the question.

ANNULMENT GRANTED. Judge Cole yesterday granted the petition of Harry K. Ottlinger to have his marriage with Flora Ottlinger, annulled. The parties were married in Santa Ana, July 11, 1907. Ottlinger says that at the time of the ceremony, he thought he was a free man, as he had been served with a notice of divorce in his behalf, and he had understood that the divorce had been granted. He afterward discovered that such was not the case.

The Inferior Courts.

FEEBLE MINDED, THINK THE JURY. ALLEGED "JACK THE RIPPER" LET OFF EASY.

Man of Strange Habits, Suspected of Having Been Terror of London Long Ago, Gets Suspended Sentence on Charge of Battery—Slater Testifies to Character.

Henry Shaw, suspected of being "Jack, the Ripper," who terrorized London years ago, and who slept with an ax by his bed and a rifle within reach, prior to his brother's death last September, was found guilty in Police Judge Rives' court yesterday on a charge of battery on Marion Haines, 15 years old, whom he attacked in her back yard on November 20. On account of his weak mental condition, the jury recommended leniency and the court suspended the sentence on the promise that he would keep away from the Haines home.

The Haines family live at No. 300 Fayette street, and Edith Tyson Shaw, a half sister to Shaw, does housework for the family. Miss Shaw and the Haines girl went into the back yard of their home at 9 o'clock in the evening when the Haines girl was alone. She was frightened by her screams, he released her, leaped over a fence and disappeared.

Miss Shaw testified that she had been living with her two brothers in San Francisco. Henry Shaw and Fred Shaw, and that his character had been bad, she herself having suffered at his hands. Fred Shaw met his death in an accident in the elevator shaft in the Citizens' National Bank building at Third and Mission streets.

Shaw appeared as his own attorney in the trial. He called as witnesses to prove an alibi, ex-Chief of Police Galloway and Sheriff Himmell. Sheriff Himmell was then called to the stand by Shaw who attempted to show by them that he was in Newhall or San Fernando at the time that the attack was supposed to have been made. Both, however, testified that they had never seen Shaw prior to his arrest.

DOES LIGHTNING CHANGE, BUT IT AVAILS HIM NOT. The substitution of a small and harmless cap-pistol in the place of a big, blue revolver, availed John Sivatzki nothing in Police Judge Chambers' court yesterday, and he was fined $30 on a charge of disturbing the peace.

Sivatzki was arrested on complaint of Mrs. J. M. Farnum, No. 323 Baldwin street, who testified on the witness stand that he swore at her and pointed a "big, blue revolver" at her dog in her front yard last Monday. After swearing at her, she stated, he left the yard and fired his revolver in the air down the street.

Sivatzki was arrested the next day. In the meantime he secured a cap-pistol from a child in the neighborhood, which he claimed in court was the pistol he had in his hand. Sivatzki was found guilty.

FALSE ALARMS. DONT BEEM SO FUNNY NOW. August Reinhardt, the youth who was arrested a few days ago on a charge of giving the police false clues as to robberies, was found guilty in Police Judge Chambers' court yesterday. He will be sentenced today.

Reinhardt stepped into one of the booths in the Burbank branch of the Police Department and notified the police of three robberies. He called up headquarters three different times and the operator at the Burbank overheard the conversation and notified the police. A motorcycle officer was sent to the

"San Diego For Me"

These words are on the lips of thousands throughout America today. The "Psychological Moment" has arrived in San Diego.

This city is growing so rapidly that the farmers in the immediate back country cannot possibly supply the demands of the local markets for more farm products. The famous Chaco Rancho in the beautiful El Cajon Valley—one of the most fertile and productive in all Southern California, is being subdivided into 5 and 10 acre tracts and sold on the most reasonable terms and at prices that are sure to double and treble in value within the next few years. Electric lines now being built to extend right through the land. Boulevard all the way to the city. Trains make seven round trips a day. AN ABUNDANCE OF FREE NEVER FAILING WATER. Come and let us convince you that this is the greatest land opportunity in Southern California today. If you cannot come, send coupon.

THE TEST WILL COME.
With the passage of the local option bill permitting the voters of a county to say whether saloons shall be permitted to exist outside of incorporated cities the contest of the wet and the dry will rage furiously in California. There is no method of applying the law to cities. But Los Angeles will vote on the question some day.

THE "HIGHER-UPS."
There are rumors and counter-rumors as to whether or not that distinguished "red," Gov. Johnson, will share in the festivities here next week. If he comes down, how red his utterances will be is a matter of some speculation. It is not forgotten that dynamiting and assassination came full soon after one of his incendiary speeches in Los Angeles. We hope and pray that no more horrors may on horror's head accumulate—but we solemnly warn those who cheer on such a fellow that some of them may have to drink of the bitter cup themselves in days to come. When crimes are incited there is no telling where the blow may fall. The sowing of dragon's teeth and the flinging of firebrands lead to consequences that no man can foresee and from which no home is safe.

RECURRESCENCE OF TOMMY.
Are we never to have done with the chestnut popping of Tommy Woolwine against Dist. Atty. Fredericks? First the campaign against him, then the recount, and now the filing of charges to procure the expulsion of Capt. Fredericks from the Los Angeles Bar Association.

All based upon the circumstances that John Gates wants back the money that he paid Fredericks and ex-Minister Gage as a fee to procure for him or for those in whom he was interested a share of an estate which otherwise would have been distributed elsewhere.

How much is Gates out anyhow? Why not inaugurate a public subscription to silence his yelpings? Put a nickel in the slot machine on the street corners for his benefit.

THE CHIN SCRAPERS BILL.
The chin scrapers license law has passed both houses at Sacramento and is now in the hands of the Governor. If he signs it there will be a jollies among the makers and vendors of safety razors and there will be striped poles for sale at a bargain.

In order to obtain a license from the consular commission under the new law the applicant must have served a three years' term of apprenticeship in this State. Where is that apprenticeship to take place? In a barber's academy or in a barber's shop? And on whom is the barber's apprentice to exercise the rudiments of his art? Will there be a half-rate chair for the use of the public in each barber shop, properly labeled, to be attended by apprentices only? Will the apprentice barbers shave the master barbers, or shave each other, turn and turn about? How about the barbers now working who have only been one year in the profession? And how about old barbers from other States who may come here?

THE OLD MEN.
Boys, be good to the old men and heed their counsel. They are standing upon the uplands and beginning to grope vaguely for the chilly key to unlock the gates of the life beyond. They do not forget that they have a duty to perform to you before they shall have honorable discharge and be suffered to file off to their camping ground among the immortals.

That duty is toward the youths who with swinging steps are coming over fields made softer and greener for the seeds their grandfathers have sown. The pink upon the cheeks of the boys is the shimmering light sifted from the mists and shadows of the early morning of peace that dawned five and forty years ago. They were born many years after the skies had cleared of the battle smoke. It may be that at the next election they will, for the first time in their young lives, hold in their hands the Lydian stone of their future, and their future will be the future of the land. As they inform their minds and guide their hands while they drop that stone into the crucible, so shall it become radiant with the beauty of promise, or dark with the shadows of doom. Boys, the old men place in your hands the grandest heritage of the ages. See that you dissipate it not.

THE LAW OF NATIONS.
Until those conducting an insurrection achieve such success as enables them to establish and conduct some sort of government within defined territorial limits they do not acquire under the law of nations even belligerent rights.

If the property or person of any citizen or subject of a foreign power is threatened by insurrectionists and the regular government proves unable or unwilling to protect such foreigners, then the government of which the foreigners are citizens or subjects may lawfully invade the disputed territory and protect those threatened, even if such protection shall extend to battle with the insurgents and armed occupation of foreign territory.

This right of foreign interference was exercised during the Boxer rebellion in China, where several European nations and the United States landed soldiers and marines and cooperated to protect property and life. If the Mexican insurrectos shall defeat the regular and shall threaten to molest peaceful American citizens residing in Sonora or Lower California, Uncle Sam's forces will be authorized to cross the border and protect the lives and property of Americans by force of arms.

Unsuspected succor has come at last to the harassed housekeeper. When the contents of the pocketbook have dwindled to the vanishing point, when even caterers must be passed by with averted head, the lure of ocean travel beckons him to fresh joys undreamed of in his landsman hours. The Pacific Navigation Company offers him for a mere pittance the use of its magnificent ocean greyhounds. "Come, all ye weary and hungry lubbers," says the voice of the tempter, "and revel in ozone and deck-chairs and spiced meats and canned vegetables and unstable equilibria. Come and partake of Hotel Green fare at Messmore prices; come and be waited on by sleek stewards instead of being your own tray-carrier." Should he resist the voice of the siren, the Pacific Mail Steamship people almost drag him away to their comfortable sea-going quarters. "Here is found the only solution of the high-price problem," they tell him. "Here at bedrock prices you may spend long lazy hours on the bosom of the 'asty deep, watching the foaming wake of the powerful propeller and feeding the fishes, should it please your fancy, on our choicest viands."

Oh, for a life on the ocean wave, safe from automobile speeders and newspapers and telephones and other modern dangerous conveniences! Come, ye farmers, cease from plowing the land and plow the seas instead! Come, Mr. New Husband, and try our ocean roll! Come, law students, dread-mid-term exams, and cross the bar with us! Let speculators open their eyes to the world's inexhaustible supply of watered stock; here gamblers barred out of Nevada may play pitch and toss to their hearts' content. The sea is free for all. The bankrupt may liquidate his debts and take another plunge; the globe-trotter may earn a reputation for a new dollar and discourse learnedly ever after on Pacific Coast ports without the aid of a guide book.

There was once a stay-at-home in Los Angeles (and who would blame him under the circumstances?) and an eastern tourist asked him how far he traveled over the surface of the globe. With true Californian modesty, he replied, "Oh, I don't set up as being much of a traveler myself, but I have a brother in Waits who once thought of taking an ocean voyage to Catalina." Remember in those bygone days it cost as much to go to Catalina as it does now to sail to San Francisco, and Waits was a wilderness. Even in the delightful surroundings of Los Angeles such a confirmed oyster will never be heard of again. From now on, every Angeleno will know the whole coast from Vancouver to Esenada, through taking advantage of the easy and inexpensive means provided by our philanthropic steamship companies. The harder up he finds himself on land, the greater the inducement to become temporarily one of the hardy crew who go down to the sea in ships.

We ourselves would love to find succor from daily toll and for a short time share these blessings, but our ears are ever haunted by the words of an old English ballad-singer. We may not quote it quite correctly, but it ran something as follows:

"On the steamship, O my darling!
When the ship rocks to and fro;
And the footsteps of the steward
Softly come and softly go.
When the passengers are moaning
With a deep and nameless woe;
Don't you think 'twere better, darling,
You and I should go below?"

"In the cabin, O my darling!
Think not bitterly of me;
If I rushed away and left you
In the middle of our tea.
For I had a fearful longing
To gaze into the deep blue sea;
It were best to leave you then, dear,
Best for you and best for me."

PRESIDENT TAFT AS A BUSINESS MAN.
Do those who make it their business to criticize or who take delight in inconsiderately assailing the administration at Washington ever pause to consider that the President is the head of a gigantic business corporation that depends on an average $1,000,000,000 per annum? It is true that he is assisted with the advice and co-operation of many able heads of departments, but it is his duty to advise and to review their action and the country and the world holds him responsible for any serious error that may be committed by any subordinate.

In the course of an able address delivered at Chicago on Washington's birthday by Charles D. Norton, late secretary to the President, that gentleman said:
"George Washington's administration conducted the public business with only 136 employees—now the total number of officers and employees of the United States government, exclusive of enlisted men and officers of the army and navy, is 411,222. Economy and efficiency exist in a high degree in activities of the government."

"What private business concern receives at any price such able, loyal service as the people receive from the Federal Judiciary, or from the officers of the army and navy. Chief Justice White is paid $13,000 per year. Col. Goethals, in supreme control of one of the most important public concerns, receives a salary of $15,000. Gen. Crozier, Chief of Ordnance, who can build a four-inch navy gun at Watervliet Arsenal for $39,400, including in the cost the usual commercial overhead charges, interest on plant, depreciation, etc., as against the lowest bid of $14,770 from a private concern, is paid $6000 per year. Dana Durand, who in two short years has developed a huge organization on non-political lines, and is expending $12,000,000 with the utmost skill and economy in an accurate census, is paid $7000 per year. Joseph S. Ralph, director of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, an Illinois man, one of the ablest, most courageous and determined soldiers who ever fought in the war on extravagance and waste, whose inventive methods have saved millions for the government, is paid $5500 per year.

The appropriation of $100,000,000 necessary to carry on the government is made by Congress largely, although not entirely, upon estimates submitted by the departments.

Congressmen are not usually expert accountants nor expert administrators. They call in bureau chiefs before appropriation committees and often time is consumed in the consideration of unimportant details. "Die afternoon," said Mr. Norton, "the entire energies of six or eight distinguished Congressmen were concentrated upon an effort to demonstrate to a stubborn bureau chief that a shed which he proposed to build for some guinea pigs, kept for experimental purposes, should be made of wood and not of concrete."

President Taft has taken the initiative in inquiring into the economy and efficiency of the government and has organized committees on this subject in all of the departments. A committee of experts on transportation has reported a saving of $1,300,000 per annum on this item alone. In all departments disbursements are to be classified and expenditures recorded.

Civil service reform needs to be itself reformed in two important particulars. One is the promotion of the intelligent and efficient. The other is to get rid of the inefficient and superannuated. It is estimated that 25 per cent. of the government employees have become incompetent either through superannuation or for other reasons. Congressman Gillett of Massachusetts has introduced a bill to compel government employees to save from their salaries sufficient funds to provide themselves with old-age pensions.

The efforts of President Taft will be approved and seconded by men of all parties. No people understand the conduct of business better than the American people, and none respond more quickly to an opportunity to improve business methods.

As Mr. Norton says in concluding his admirable address:

"In a civil service, defended from partisan and political attack from without, defended against superannuation and inefficiency from within, transacting and recording its business in such a way that an expert of the certified public accountant or comptroller type can go into the operations of any and every division of the government and come out with a clear, understandable report—in such a service there will arise a healthy competition in efficiency and economy between the heads of the divisions and bureaus, and when that day comes the people will cease to view with distrust the enlargement of the beneficial activities of government."

THE RULE OF DIAZ.
When Diaz was first elected President Mexico was a barbarism masquerading as a government. The powers of its officers, civil and military, were undefined, and the extent of their powers as well as the manner of executing those powers rested in their uncontrolled discretion. They were usually corrupt and often solicited bribes for performing mere routine official duties. A decision of the Supreme Court decided only the particular case before the court and was not respected as authority or considered to be a guide by an inferior court in another case.

American capitalists who invested in Mexico did so with the understanding that without constantly paying tribute to officials their holdings would be unsafe. Diaz gradually changed all this. He brought order out of chaos. In public offices he substituted reasonably honest men for grafters. He invited foreign capital to come into Mexico and afforded it protection. Before his advent foreigners who worked mines incurred the danger of being compelled to surrender their yield to bandits, but for many years Americans and American investments in railroads and mines have received complete protection. The legacy of hatred of "gringos" left by the war with Mexico was abated considerably because of the aid, both moral and material, which our government extended to Juarez in overthrowing Maximilian, but it came to the surface occasionally when opportunity to despoil a gringo was presented.

That the methods employed by Diaz to bring about these reforms were often drastic and sometimes despotic is true. Instead of arresting and giving a trial to robbers taken in the act they were often given the choice of enlisting in the "rurales" or being lined up against the nearest wall and shot. The rurales, or mounted police, were largely composed of thieves, but their officers would not suffer them to commit depredations upon peaceful citizens.

If it be conceded that the laws of Mexico and the administration of both local and national government need improvement, yet it does not follow that the overthrow of Diaz and the substitution of Madero would bring such improvement about. The triumph of the insurrectos would be a triumph of advanced socialism. The property of foreigners and of the wealthy class of Mexicans would be confiscated. Americans would be driven out and, while thousands of Mexicans would be relieved from peonage, they would

The transformation of Mexico under the rule of Diaz is illustrated by the fact that, while in 1877 there were but 400 postoffices and 5000 miles of telegraph, there are now 3000 of the former and 40,000 miles of the latter. There has been a similar percentage of growth in the construction of railroads, in the development of mines and in the establishment of manufacturing industries.

The $1,500,000,000 of American capital now in Mexico gives well-paid employment to 500,000 people. If it were possible for the insurrection to succeed the workers of our sister republic would pay a high price in order to effect a change from one set of public officials to another.

STANDING FOR THE OPEN SHOP.

One must admit that the determined stand for the "open shop" taken by the Adams Express Company of Jersey City and New York in connection with the general strike of its employees which began early on the morning of March 11. In an open (and published) letter to Henry R. Towne, president of the Merchants' Association of New York, W. M. Barrett, president of the Adams Company, says:

"The company is standing now, as it stood in November, for the open shop; that is, the right to employ men, union or non-union, with respect solely to their fitness. It has made no discrimination against union men, but it must be the sole judge of the fitness of its employees and it cannot surrender its right to meet its responsibilities by subjecting itself to the will of the Teamsters' Union."

The company has assurances from its employees in large numbers that they are ready to return to work as soon as they can feel confident of the personal safety of themselves and their families from violence.

"Five days ago the Teamsters' Union made a demand upon the company for the reinstatement of three of its former employees, one of whom, a driver, had been dismissed for abandoning his wagon and going into the men's cabin of a ferryboat to smoke, violating the rules of the company [and the condition of his employment—Ed. Times] adopted for the protection of merchandise and valuable entrusted to it. The other two had been discharged for neglecting a letter from the desk of one of the company's inspectors in Jersey City [in other words, a case of theft—Ed. Times]. Consideration of a demand for the discharge of a driver who was believed to be faithful to his duty at the extra session after all. Neither the Republican Senate nor the Democratic House is displaying a disposition favorable to a renewal of the hearings which brought legislative effort to a low standard in the earlier days of the cent session. The relative unimportance of the recall provision of the Arizona Constitution and the tariff board bill takes them out of the programme, limiting the life and purpose of the extra session to matters of first importance.

These are few in number, and if the preliminary work of the leaders who will be in control is a safe guide, all thought of a comprehensive handling of the tariff, such as prevailed during the winter, has been abandoned. The overwhelming preponderance of public sentiment against continued unemployment of material interests by reason of Congressional inactivity has finally and fully convinced party leadership that the people have experienced a change of heart."

A Perpetual Congress.
Yet the fact remains, if it is to become customary to call a special session of Congress each time it fails to do its duty, Congress is likely to be in perpetual session.—[Kansas City Star.]

White Bread Dead.

White bread, until it became a political fetish, was purely a fashion, like the crimelike—just as foolish, and very much more unhealthy. Common-sense killed the fashion, and today common-sense is killing white bread. The fashion has had its day.—[Dublin News.]

TALES OF THE WEST.

A well-known San Francisco gentleman, upon the occasion of his wife's birthday, gave an old-fashioned dinner, in a private room at the St. Francis Hotel, says the Wasp. In real old-fashioned style the head of table staggered under weight of home industry products. In fact Mr. Wasp had given orders to Mr. Hiram to make the table "groan with good things" grown in the glorious climate of California. Just as the head of the table started to plunge the knife into the turkey, a lady remarked that she had usually heard grace said at old-fashioned dinners. An embarrassing silence ensued; host and hostess looked apologetically at each other. Then the lady bowed her head and said:

"Oh, Lord, may we in grace be able To eat all things now on this table. If there's more in the pot, Bring it on while it's hot. We're hungry, and that's no fable."

Swimming Instructor Arthur Cavill of the Multnomah Athletic Club, Portland, sometimes comes through with a keenly caustic remark, says the Oregonian. Recently he sat with some friends at the Hotel, just in front of a box in which some near-sighted folk were having a theater party. A very talkative member of the box party was a nasal-toned young Englishman, whose raucous voice was almost continuously heard in a succession of loud small talk. Cavill and his friends, just in front of the box, were having their nerves worn to a frazzle, but all endured the ordeal in silence until the fog-horn tones were uplifted in an insistent invitation to the rest of the party to visit his sheep ranch and partake of the hospitality of the sheep camp.

"I should be chawmed, don'tcheknow," the Englishman was saying, "to have you drop in any minute, but send me a word ahead, don'tcheknow, and I'll kill the fatted calf."

"That would be suicide," said Cavill, all too audibly, and throughout the rest of the play there was peace.

At a banquet attended by nearly 200 members of a fraternal order in one of the large cities of the Coast, given in honor of a citizen who had been elected president of the order, the orchestra, after playing several selections, struck up "Wearing of the Green." Apparently everybody present began to sing it, almost drowning out the instruments.

"It's easy to see," remarked one of the guests, "that this is an Irish crowd."

Presently the orchestra began the well-known strains of "Die Wacht am Rhein," and the audience sang it, as usual.

"I see I was wrong," said the guest. "This is a German crowd."

A few minutes later the musicians started up "Dixie." There was the usual clapping of hands and everybody present turned his voice loose.

"Again I was wrong," he said. "This is a southern crowd."

At last the orchestra began to play "My Country 'Tis of Thee." It is scarcely necessary to say that everybody stood up and sang with all his might.

"I take it all back," said the guest. "This is an American crowd."

An Episcopal missionary in Nevada visited one of the outlying districts in his territory for the purpose of conducting prayer in the home of a large family not conspicuous for its piety. He made known his intentions to the woman of the house, and she murmured vaguely that she'd go out and see.

She was long in returning, and after a three-way wait the missionary went to the door and called with some impatience: "Aren't you coming in? Don't you care anything about your soul?"

"Souls!" yelled the head of the family from the orchard. "We haven't got time to fool with our souls when the bees are swarming!"

Contemporary Comment.
Ruef in Prison.

Abraham Ruef has begun his term of fourteen years in San Quentin Prison, California. When he comes out he will be an old man and broken, with perhaps an ample fortune "sifted," which he cannot enjoy. He was one of the men who made politics pay. It was worth more to him to be Mayor of San Francisco than it is to be President of the United States. More in money, more in what appears to be material advantage—but like scores of his kind, he was exposed and disgraced, and he has come to realize that it doesn't pay any better in the long run to exploit a community than it does to pick a pocket. Now it is not the first. His type has existed in many parts of the country, and sooner or later his type gets exactly what it deserves.—[Philadelphia Telegraph.]

Chicago should make Carter Harrison Mayor for life and save campaign and election expenses if he is such a good thing.—[Des Moines Capital.]

Found Out.
A man never begins to blame a woman for his downfall until somebody has found him out.—[Chicago Record-Herald.]

Out of the Programme.
The Statehood fight, which some overwrought politicians say is likely to result in the founding of a new party, is not in the programme of the Republican National Convention. Neither the Republican Senate nor the Democratic House is displaying a disposition favorable to a renewal of the hearings which brought legislative effort to a low standard in the earlier days of the cent session. The relative unimportance of the recall provision of the Arizona Constitution and the tariff board bill takes them out of the programme, limiting the life and purpose of the extra session to matters of first importance.

CHAUFFEUR CONFESSES.

Man Who Told of Having Mutilated Himself Says He Did Not Do So—Not Perhaps That of Irate Husband.

Claude E. Turner, who told the authorities at the Receiving Hospital, Thursday, that he had mutilated himself in Oxnard that morning, yesterday made a confession that he did not do the work. It appears that he was Jerillized by an irate husband.

Turner has been a chauffeur and repair man in the Woods garage, at Santa Barbara three weeks. During his stay there he met a married woman, whose name he will not reveal. He suddenly quit his position with the automobile concern and started for Los Angeles. He says his work ran out there, that being the reason why he decided to leave. He arrived at Ventura early Wednesday morning and remained until 2 o'clock.

"While at Ventura," says Turner, "I met a stranger, who boarded the train with me at Santa Barbara. He asked me to have a drink and I accepted his invitation, after which we took several shaves and was about 50 years old. The man that was with me, was well dressed. He wore a dark striped suit and a derby hat. He was smooth shaven, and was about 20 years old. I never saw him before."

Turner says he does not know the name of the physician who treated him in Oxnard, nor the hotel where he passed the night. He has a wife living in Los Angeles, at No. 5434 Monte Vista street. He was brought to the Receiving Hospital here by Constable C. C. Cason of Oxnard, who left without telling any of the particulars.

PREPARING FOR TRIAL.
Expert Promoters, Alleged to Have Squinted Working Class by Alluring Notices, to Face Charge.
Preparations for the trial of J. M. Graybill and A. L. Markwell, expert promoters, are now being made by the United States Attorney. Their hearing on a charge of having used the mails for the purpose of defrauding, will begin before Judge Welborn, Tuesday.

The defendants are alleged to have gathered defunct claims at Greenwater and Ely, Nev., and organized the Greenwater-Ely Consolidated Copper Company.

Alluring advertisements were scattered broadcast. Representations were made that whoever invested would soon be residing in a palace with everything which money could buy at his command.

Hundreds of poor persons are said to have been swindled by the concern. It is alleged that $10,000 was gathered from working persons, in amounts ranging from $5 up.

Graybill has an interesting history as a promoter. He is said to have floated not less than twenty companies with attractive names, but with little capital.

The Fashion Show

From a Practical Standpoint

In the effort to obtain garments and dress accessories that shall be striking in appearance, stores too often lose sight of the practicality and durability of certain styles and modes.

On this, the Third Day of the Fashion Show, when the larger portion of feminine Los Angeles have been our guests—many of them, two and three times over—we wish to emphasize as strongly as possible the fact, which we hope has been obvious in all of our displays, that

All Garments, and All Dress Accessories Displayed During the Fashion Show, Have Been Purchased for Our Regular Stocks; and Are in No Sense Merely "Show Pieces"

Furthermore, while purchases throughout the store reflect to the most accurate degree, current tendencies in Fashions for Spring and Summer, in no instance can you find anything garish, or theatrical, or tawdry. Values and quality loom large in the minds of buyers for all sections of the store, and nothing that will not endure the closest scrutiny enters our stocks.

Practically all shipments of goods for Spring and Summer selling are now in stock, and we cordially invite your inspection and patronage; your selections being made from what amounts to a very permanent and continuous Show of Fashions.

OUR GREATEST ARBOR DAY.

Thousands of School Children Join in Exercises.

Ex-Vice-President Denies Being Candidate.

His Eloquent Speech Greatly Pleases Crowd.

Yesterday was the only real live Arbor Day Los Angeles has ever celebrated. Several things conspired to make it so, but the chief factor was the civic pride of the people of the southwest section of the city, who determined to make notable the first public gathering in Exposition Park.

Tree.
In Tennessee, under which I so often sit, and sometimes not alone. He congratulated the young people upon being born in California, but said it was so near heaven here that the preacher has a hard time of it getting them to church.

Events in Local Society.
Two betrothals in one day in the period of sackcloth and ashes is surely a record-breaker. Nevertheless it is true and the young women are Miss Theresa Stuthard and Miss Marie Gavan. Miss Stuthard has chosen as her life companion George Adams Tate, a stock broker of this city, and Miss Gavan has chosen her life companion George B. McLain.

Ex-Vice-President Denies Being Candidate.
Dr. Walker, in making reference to Mr. Fairbanks, said that he understood the distinguished gentleman was to desert Indiana and become a resident of Los Angeles, and when President Haskett introduced the ex-Vice-President as the next speaker, he went still further. He spoke of Mr. Fairbanks as the "next President of the United States," and expressed the belief that the California delegation in the next electoral college would cast its vote for him.

---a man with a hoe and one acre can make a living, yes, it is claimed, a good living, where?

IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

WE DO NOT KNOW that similar conditions prevail anywhere else in the world.

IT HAS BEEN STATED that one acre of land in Southern California in its productive capacity is equal to 80 acres in the middle west.

IF A LIVING CAN be made on one acre, what can be done on 5 acres, 10 acres, or more? A crop can be gathered every day in the year.

THERE MAY BE AS GOOD land somewhere else in the world, but we do not believe that there is any better.

WE DO NOT KNOW of any tract of land from the Atlantic to the Pacific or in any other country where such ideal conditions exist.

WE HAVE RECENTLY ACQUIRED the famous Chase Ranch in the El Cajon Valley, one of the most beautiful and productive tracts in the world. It is located a few miles from San Diego and is easily accessible by good roads, a steam railway running frequent trains during the day, and an electric line has been graded and should be finished during the year.

WE ARE DIVIDING THIS LAND into 5 acre tracts and selling it at reasonable prices and on favorable terms. We believe that one of these tracts will make any man independent. Of course it will require some work. It is certainly easier to work 5 acres than 80 acres.

THE WINTERS are WARM and the summers cool.

THESE 5 ACRE TRACTS are desirable for homes and for investment purposes.

IN FERTILITY and desirability from every standpoint, we do not know of its counterpart in this country or any other.

ASK ANY BANKER, merchant, professional man or resident of San Diego about this land.

THE EL CAJON VALLEY is as well known to the people of this section as the Nile to the Egyptians.

THERE IS NO DISAGREEMENT as to its fertility or desirability.

THE LAND IS BEING SOLD rapidly and the prices will never again be as cheap as they are at present.

Live Doings in Field of Sports.

Tables Turned. BIG SURPRISE FOR RED SOX.

Imported Big Leaguers Lose Snappy Game to Hap.

Local Heavers Outpitch the Eastern Kind.

Ross Shines in Both Hitting and Fielding.

Vernon, 4; Boston, 2.

The Irishmen on the Boston team celebrated the famous St. Patrick's holiday yesterday with a large and glorious display of reverse English, for they were handed a neat shillingalagh by the Vernon team. There are probably few Orange-men on Hap Hogan's club and yet the Boston papers will probably announce this morning that the victory was somewhat of a yellow one. This is because no big league team cares to be beaten, even in a spring practice game.

The Sox couldn't have helped themselves yesterday if they had cried all their collective eyes out, for the locals went to bedient as if he was Volgaist and they wanted to get a bet down before the price faded away. They cracked him for various pokes in the second, fourth and fifth innings and with the assistance of young Vernin's wild heave to first base and Bedient's hum heave for a wild pitch, made enough runs to win an interesting game.

The locals were entitled to their victory for they made enough wits to win two games and took advantage of all of Boston's misplays and some of theirs were costly. Of course there will be a lot of talk about Boston "not trying," but forget that, for any big league ball player would rather have been Menie last night than to lose to a "bush" ball club. They couldn't win because the Vernon pitchers were too good.

Beautiful fielding featured the game at times and the fight bugs who went to see baseball instead of a boxing contest were repaid for their self-sacrifice. Janvyn opened the second inning with a long fly to left center field and after running for about 160 yards at top speed Ross managed to get close enough to the rapidly descending ball to stick out his left hand and grab it. It was a beautiful catch and was loudly applauded. Carlisle made a pretty running catch of Bradley's long fly to right in the ninth inning that deserved applause.

Janvyn started for the Sox with a classy running catch of Carlisle's high foul near the grand stand in the first inning and Wagner speared a throw to second with his left hand in the first and managed to touch Patterson, who was trying to steal second. This was a big league play to a fare-you-well, but that is typical of Wagner. Coy beat out a hit to Gardner in the fifth for a very close decision at first. Gardner making a beautiful stab at the ball while on the run and snapping it to first base.

FAST FIELDING.

The fielding on the whole was snappy, and the game was a fast one. The only one of Vernon's errors that did the Sox any good was in the first inning, when Hopper hit a safe one to Burrell which put Gardner on third. Gardner having opened the game with a double, Burrell shot the ball to Patterson at first and it was knocked out of his hand in the collision. Gardner scored on the error.

The second run resulted from MacJannet's slam past Brasher in the eighth and Wagner's long double to the center fence.

Vernon started his victory in the fourth. With two out Brasher bounced a double off the left fence, went to third on a wild pitch by Bedient and scored on Hopper's hit out of Gardner's reach.

In the fifth Coy and Hopp singled infield. Hogan batted the ball to Janvyn, forcing Coy at third, and in an attempt to complete a double play Janvyn made a wild heave to first base, Hopp going to third on the error and Hogan to second. Stinson batted for Stewart and flew to center. Carlisle was deliberately walked, to prevent a possible hit.

McDonald, who had taken Burrell's place at third, then stepped to the plate and with the bases full, lined out a corking double to the left fence, scoring Hopp, Hogan and Carlisle.

This ended the run getting, but Ross would have scored in the sixth on his single and Coy's double, but for a beautiful relayed throw to the plate, Mahoney to Wagner to Kleinow.

This play showed the class of the visitors, but there was another illustration of it in the eighth when Patterson on third, tried to work a double steal with Ross on first and was caught at the plate. Kleinow to Gardner to Kleinow. The throw down and back was as neat as any fan would care to look at.

Both Wagner and Hopp showed some pretty work and the fans got the worth of the money watching these two.

TIGER PREPS WIN. Occidental Defeats U.S.C. in Track Meet at Baer Field Yesterday Afternoon.

Occidental Academy defeated the U. S. C. "Preps" yesterday afternoon, in a closely-contested meet that was only decided after a fast and exciting relay, in which the Tiger "Kittens" barely nosed out a victory of 72 to 68.

Foster of Occidental was the big point winner of the day. He took four first places for his school, winning the fifty, 100, 220-yard dashes and the baseball throw. Ward of U.S.C. was the next man to Foster in point winning ability. He took first in the high and low hurdles, the high jump and second in the broad jump. All the events were closely contested and the meet was one of the best interscholastic events of the season, both as to the closeness of the struggle and the records made.

The results:

The 100-yard dash—Foster (O.) first, McNair (O.) second, Huston (S.C.) third; time, 10:3-5-8.

The 220-yard dash—Foster (O.) first, Coob (O.) second, McNair (O.) third; time, 24-4.

The 440-yard dash—Baird (O.) first, Parker (S.C.) second, Crebs (O.) third; time, 55:2-5-8.

The 880-yard run—Annin (O.) first, Torrance (S.C.) second, Lane (O.) third; time, 2:20-1-5-8.

The mile run—Annin (O.) first, Torrance (S.C.) second, Lane (O.) third; time, 4m. 32:2-5-8.

The 120-yard hurdles—Ward (S.C.) first, Lane (O.) second, Watson (S.C.) third; time, 2:1-5-8.

The 220-yard hurdles—Ward (S.C.) first, Watson (S.C.) second, Gilkey (O.) third; time, 2:1-5-8.

Hammer throw—H. Earl (S.C.) first, Gilkey (O.) second, Clement (S.C.) third; distance, 120ft. 5in.

Discus throw—C. Earl (S.C.) first, Gilkey (O.) second, Halberg (O.) third; distance, 90ft. 5in.

Pole vault—McKelvey (O.) first, H. Earl (S.C.) second, Winthrod (S.C.) third; height, 9ft. 5in.

Shot put—Clement (S.C.) first, Gilkey (O.) second, Halberg (O.) third; distance, 49ft. 5in.

Broads jump—C. Earl (S.C.) first, Ward (S.C.) second, Watson (S.C.) third; distance, 20ft. 5in.

Baseball throw—Foster (O.) first, Palm (S.C.) second, Bundy (O.) third; distance, 270ft. 5in.

Relay race—Won by Occidental team composed of Cook, McNair, Baird, Foster.

LAWYERS LOSE BAFFLING CASE.

DECISION GIVEN IN FAVOR OF STANFORD MEN.

Deniers of U.S.C. Law Students Overruled by Judge Bonehead.

Local Barriers Show Fairly Well Until the Final Round—Terry Is Day's Bright Star.

Stanford, 6; U.S.C. Law School, 4. Ragged playing at important points in the game and the weakening of Pitcher Nielsen in the last two innings of play lost the game for the U.S.C. Barriers in their match with the Stanford nine at Boyard Field yesterday afternoon.

For the first seven innings of play the lawyers outbatted their opponents, getting eight hits to three by the Cardinals. The advantage which should have resulted from their fine stick work was offset in nearly every case by "bonehead" work on the part of runners, however.

Stanford was unable to connect with the sphere during the first part of the game. The Cardinals registered only three hits, but pulled three runs on errors. "Stan" Mitchell at third base had an off day, making three errors of the four by his team. Terry, the crack little Cardinal shortstop, furnished the sensations for the northerners. He stopped everything that went his way and knocked a couple of speedy hits over second base.

This was the first game on the Stanford schedule in Southern California and the team showed up well. The local team was hardly up to its usual form as it has won ten straight victories and maintained a high fielding average until yesterday.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SAN FRANCISCO, March 17.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) If Danny Long's Seals play down the form they exhibited this afternoon with the Red Sox Secundos at Recreation Park, they are bound to be struggling with some other ill-fated team for the cellar championship of the Pacific Coast during the penultimate night.

Bad pitching was more responsible for the defeat than anything else, although fielding which was of the ramshackle order, certainly helped in the run setting.

With Coast League teams all along beating the Taylor colts, San Francisco figured to have an edge on the Yannigans. As a matter of fact, they started out with a lead that was enthralling to the handful of fans, but once they hit the toboggan, somebody applied the grease and they went down hill just as rapidly as a 10 to 4 score would indicate.

The Sox on Coits represent a fair aggregation of minor league material, for the most part, but without spectacular men. There was some encouragement to be gained in the hitting strength of the Seals, but their twirlers must show more form than was displayed if the club is to figure during the season.

MILLER BUMPED HARD.

Frank Miller pitched in his first regular game since he joined the club this spring, and the iron man showed that he has not yet rounded into condition. Right at the jump Riggert landed on him for a home run and before he was finished with his three innings, there were five tallies chalked up against him. It would not be fair to place all of the blame upon Miller, however, since Mohler's costly error at second when he had a splendid chance for a double, was almost wholly responsible for three of the runs that followed.

Felder, who complained of a sore arm before he started, was in little better shape when he took the mound with an exhibition of sick work that took all of the fight out of San Francisco.

It could be called little else than a rag-tag game, for the Bostonians were as unhappy in their fielding and throwing as they were in their hitting. That kind of a game and that kind of a score, played on that kind of a day, is a combination that would make even the thirty-third century long for something else than baseball.

Arrelanes, O'Brien and Busick were on the mound for the Coits, and of the trio, Arrelanes was by far the freest with his hits. Six of the dives and two of the Seal runs came in those opening innings.

There was no dearth of hitting after that, but the runs were lacking and at moments when the locals had some mighty good chances to tally.

Twice during the day the visitors filled the bases. Once Miller was lucky to get away with one run scored, but on the other occasion it was Perry's single that sent two of the Yannigans scampering home.

MANY SEALS TRIED.

Fourteen of the Seals were used in the line up and there was a constant shifting of places. A slight injury to Melchior sent Weaver to right and McArdle to short, and the game was Oscar Vitt tripped while running from third to the plate and the little-business manager of the club was sent to the bench. McArdle shifting to first, Weaver going back to short and Joe Tobin filling in at right.

Yerkes, the Sox short stop, who looks like good fielding material, put in the speaker habit and came out at the end of the day with four hits in five up. He fielded his position in good shape all the way through with his nine chances and helped wonderfully in the run getting.

The second inning saw run getting on both sides. Engle walked, was sent to third on a long single by Yerkes and scored on the squeeze play by Myers.

The Seals more than came back. Jimmy Lewis cracked a corking double into right field, Vitt hit to left scoring Lewis and making third on an out and scoring on Ryan's single.

RIGGERT HITS HOMER.

When Miller started to pitch in the fourth, the Red Sox evented up a score, Riggert putting the ball over the right field fence.

Things were breaking badly for Miller in the next two innings, in both of which he forced in the run. In the fifth, Prepke singled, Nunemaker walked and O'Brien was safe on a throw to first.

Fouled to Vitt but Hollis was walked, Prepke tallying. Riggert fanned and Engle forced O'Brien, Miller getting out of his trouble in fairly good shape.

In the sixth, he was not so lucky. Yerkes got his third hit of the afternoon and Miller's choice, Perry hit to Vitt who tossed to Mohler. The kid dropped the ball after a perfect throw. Nunemaker filled the bases with a single into left and O'Brien was walked. Perry followed it all with a long drive to center and there were three runs across before a double retired the side.

A walk, an error, a stolen base and a double by Myers gave another run in the seventh and the more Perry gathered in the eighth, when four long hits and a walk raised havoc with Miller.

The other two San Francisco runs came in the fifth and eighth. In the fifth, Weaver singled, was sent to third on a long hit by McArdle but was forced at the plate. McArdle reached third on the play and tallied when Nunemaker made a wild throw to Engle to try to catch the runner.

After Madden had walked and advanced to second on a balk in the eighth, he was scored by Vitt's single. The score:

NEW ANGEL PLAYER.
STAR COMING FROM PEORIA.

Henry Berry of the Los Angeles team announced yesterday that he had closed a deal with the Cincinnati team for an infielder named Moore, who was with the Peoria team in the Three-I League last year. He left for this city last night.

Last season he played both second base and shortstop and in 122 games hit .278 and had nineteen sacrifice hits and 475 bases. In 1925 he played 122 games as a shortstop, he had 297 outs, 290 assists and fifty-four errors, for a fielding percentage of .908.

Berry could not state last night how his infield would look, but he said he would try Moore at short, Akin at third, McGraw at second and Dillon at first base. On the dope this looks to be a good combination, but no one can be sure of it. This may mean that Delmas will be given the utility job, but he is a very good ball player and may make Moore look cheap, for Del has the snappiest arm in the league.

VERNON GRABS ONE.
NEW INFIELDER DUE.

Hap Hogan of the Vernon team has added another new ball player to his long list of possibilities and he expects his new man to reach this city today from Denver.

His name is Davis and Hogan says he has been playing in the Western League, having been with Omaha, Denver, Pueblo and Sioux City. The only man of that name as an infielder in the Western is George Davis, who played shortstop and second base for Des Moines last year.

In thirteen games as a shortstop he hit .192, had twenty-two outs, twenty-seven assists and three errors, for a percentage of .942. On second base in fifteen games he had forty-two outs, thirty-three assists and seven errors, and batted .215.

Hogan declares the fellow is a free agent and, although a number of clubs have been after him, he did not sign with any of them because he did not want to play professional ball.

This Announcement

is published to let every smoker know I have secured the R. B. Cigar for Southern California. After critically examining the manufacture of a great variety of cigars I have settled on the R. B. as giving the best value for the money. It is hand made, long filler, mild, mellow. The manufacturers do not advertise the R. B. I am going to tell every smoker about it—the best 5c cigar ever made. Ask for the R. B. to-day. I myself stand behind it.

WOLGAST EASILY OUTPOINTS MEMSIC IN EVERY ROUND.

MEMSIC IN EVERY ROUND.

ONE-SIDED.

THE STORY OF THE FIGHT BY ROUNDS.

Told by J. Alex Sloan, follows:

Round One—Memsic landed a clinch followed by Wolgast. Wolgast forced Memsic back to the ropes and landed two hard lefts to the stomach. George landed two on Ad's face. Wolgast tore into Memsic and landed two more smashing blows on Memsic's solar plexus. The fighters clinched and Memsic shot his right to Wolgast's head while Ad held George's left hand and Ad held George's right. A rapid exchange followed and the boys were clinched when the gong sounded.

Round Two—Memsic again started the fray, sending a straight left to the face and a clinch followed. Memsic roughed it with Wolgast. Ad landed a couple of jabs to the nose and the first blood showed up from Memsic's nostril. The champion mixed it lively, sending his left to the face. Memsic landed a hard right to the kidney and then jabbed the champion three times in the face. Wolgast waded in and landed, but was given a counter that rocked him. A rapid exchange followed and the boys were clinched when the gong sounded.

Round Three—Wolgast rushed at Memsic and landed a triple left on Memsic's anatomy. Memsic jumped into a clinch and Referee Eytan warned him to cut out the holding. Wolgast landed lightly and was waded in the return. Memsic worked in his left jab which didn't seemed to grow stronger, while Memsic weakened under the telling pace and allowed himself to become careless and wild.

Referee Charlie Eytan saw that to allow the battle to go on would only invite brutality, as Memsic was clearly losing ground. Whether he would have continued to come up round after round and face the savage attack of the champion was a question that no one could answer, but in view of the conditions under which the match was allowed to be staged, it was probably for the best that the end came the way it did without either man being damaged beyond immediate repair.

When the decision was given by the referee both men were in the center of the ring fighting hard. Wolgast was landing repeatedly, while Memsic was losing ground and throwing himself open to punishment. His left eye was almost closed and there was a bad cut on the bridge of his nose.

The crowd was generally pleased with the afternoon's sport and went away from the arena convinced that the promoters had lived up to the letter of the law.

anyway, as Wolgast would soon end the stay there.

The usual preliminary announcements were made and Joe Rivers was introduced. The Mexican lad, it was announced, will meet Frankie Conley in the Vernon arena on April 15.

With the deck cleared for action the gong sounded and both boys went at it like a couple of young wildcats. In the first round Memsic showed the style of battle he had planned and it was Wolgast's kink. He evidently was going to end the affair as quickly as possible.

Wolgast showed that he was better than ever and that his sojourn in the East during the past six months had added to his fight.

The first round ended about even and neither an accident when Memsic threw the champion violently to the floor, nothing serious happened.

In the second, third, fourth and fifth rounds the battle waged ferociously, with neither fighter showing to much advantage. Memsic was probably entitled to an edge in the second and fourth seasons, while Wolgast more than evened matters up in the third and the fifth.

In the sixth, seventh and eighth rounds Wolgast gained rapidly and blocked and then landed a left to Wolgast's ear. Memsic landed on Ad's nose, which seemed bullet-proof, but a clinch followed. Memsic's eye was closing from punishment. Wolgast shot an uppercut to the mouth and Memsic was fighting gamely, but he did not seem to bother the champion. Wolgast's round.

Round Eight—Wolgast met Memsic in center of the ring and opened the fire with a hard right. They clinched and Wolgast landed on Memsic's kidneys. Wolgast hammered away at Memsic's sore nose. Memsic landed left left to face and received a couple of hard rights in return. Memsic kept trying unsuccessfully to land on the champion's jaw. Wolgast forced George to the ropes and landed a series of light unmerciful. Another lunge from Wolgast's glove connected with Memsic's head eye. Wolgast's round.

Round Nine—Wolgast seemed to realize he was getting the best of his man and ran across the ring to meet him. He landed right to George's body. Memsic's defense was weakening, but he seemed strong and tried to land, only to shove his face into the champion's glove. Wolgast landed a series of blows to Memsic's face and body. Memsic fought back savagely, but the champion smiled and jumped into George with terrific right uppercuts and left jabs. Referee Eytan parted the men and sent them to their corners, declaring Wolgast the winner.

PRELIMINARIES.

BOUTS ON THE LIMITS.

The preliminary bouts to the Wolgast-Memsic battle were all that the fight fans expected and furnished as much entertainment as the principal event.

The first preliminary brought out "Hobo" Dougherty and Frankie Harris in a set to that went the full ten rounds, according to schedule. The seven thousand spectators were basking lazily in the warm rays of the bright sun, when the two youngsters applied the can opener to the afternoon's sport.

"Hobo" Dougherty waded into Harris like an indomitable young typhoon, while the latter contented himself to run away and cover up most of the time. For the first few rounds "Hobo" kept the lead. Then Harris came up over even terms, and towards the end of the bout was a shade to the good.

Harris finished the stranger by long odds, but Dougherty deserved the draw decision, because of his carrying the fight to his opponent throughout the ten rounds.

In the second preliminary, the good-natured crowd was handed a laugh at the start, when announcer Ben Smith introduced Gus Anderson, who belongs to the shoestring class, and looked all the more elongated when Louis Rees stepped to the center of the ring. Rees is built like portion of country sausage.

Anderson proved much the cleverer and after the first round had it on Rees most of the way over the entire ten rounds of the bout, winning a well-earned decision.

Tom Jones on the Fight.

I told you all along that Wolgast would win and win easily. He is the greatest 135-pound boy the fighting world has ever seen and, take it from me, before he gets through this campaign he will have all the legitimate 135-pounders tearing for cover. I have never once doubted his superiority over Memsic and would have been surprised if he had not finished the job inside the ten-round mark. It was the very best thing to do to stop it when the referee acted. To have let it go on would simply have prolonged the misery and probably brought about an unfortunate ending.

DAUGHTER SEEKS LOST MOTHER.

CLEVELAND WOMAN WOULD FIND HER WANDERING PARENT.

Was Told When a Child That Her Mother Was Dead and She Learns That She Married and Came West Many Years Ago—Aid of Police Invoked.

HANFORD, March 17.—Sheriff Parmer has made a careful search of Kings county in an endeavor to locate Mrs. Sadie Brownell, in compliance with a request from the Chief of Police of San Bernardino, but has been unable to find her.

The search was instituted at the behest of Mrs. Winifred Haggerty of Cleveland, who stated in a letter to the San Bernardino police that she had just learned from her father that her mother, whom she had always been told to believe dead when she was a child, was alive and in California with her second husband, whose name is Brownell.

The pair were traced by the daughter to San Bernardino, and from there, it was learned, they came to Kings county about a year ago. They were known here by two or three persons from whom Sheriff Parmer gleaned some information. Rev. MacDonald, rector of the Church of the Savior, stated that he met the people, and that they were at that time returning to Southern California, presumably San Bernardino, after having been here a short time. Brownell was ill, and said the climate here was not suited to his condition. It seems from the daughter's letter that she was abducted by her father when 2 years of age, and in total ignorance that her mother was living until a few weeks ago.

Three members of Co. M, N.G.C., of this city, who voluntarily absented themselves from inspection Tuesday night, have been ordered court-martialed by Brig.-Gen. Wankowski of Los Angeles, who was one of the inspecting officers. The trials will be held here next month. It is believed the proceeding is taken as a means to enforce attendance and make an example of these three men as to the consequences of evading orders.

The Automobile Club of Kings County is now fully organized, with the following officers: Richard Mills, president; C. M. Lacey, vice-president; E. E. Wright, treasurer. A permanent secretary is to be selected by the five directors later. The club has a membership of over 100, and expects to immediately get to work on a good roads agitation, and also work to assure the routing of the San Bernardino Valley State highway through this city and county.

TERRA BELLA VOTES BONDS.

Authorizes Issue of Sixteen Thousand Dollars to Defray Expenses of Building New School House.

TERRA BELLA, March 17.—Terra Bella voted today, by a large majority in favor of an issue of $16,000 in bonds for the construction of a six-room school house of advanced design, there being practically a unanimous vote cast in favor of the proposal. These bonds are to run for twenty years and are to bear interest at the rate of 5 per cent.

In anticipation of the successful vote, the Board of Education had already ordered a complete set of plans and specifications and there will be no delay in letting the contract for the work. The structure is to be thoroughly modern in every respect and will contain a complete system of heating, ventilating and vacuum cleaning.

In order that the surroundings may be commensurate with the beauty of the building, the townspeople have donated a campus of five acres of ground, conveniently and centrally located. It is the plan to have the school completed and equipped for the term in the coming fall.

CROWD ATTENDS THE TRIAL.

Liquor Cases Excite the Interest of the Populace at Forterville—Another Amusement Election.

FORTERVILLE, March 18.—Surrounded by lawyers and with all the pomp and circumstance of a trial with a miller at issue the first of the liquor selling cases to be brought in this city since the passage of the new saloon laws in Forterville, started at the City Hall this afternoon in the presence of a crowd which simply jammed the building to suffocation.

Walter Vaughan, former bartender in a now defunct main-street resort, is the first against whom action is to be taken. J. D. Dorey, generally known as "Doc," is the second. The third is a local lawyer, E. L. Lindsay and E. L. Howett. Up to a late hour this afternoon three scores of venturers had been examined and only seven jurors had been picked. The question: "If once you made up your mind in this case would you allow your position to be changed merely because you were in the minority?"

There are seven cases to be tried and at the present progress the trials will occupy a large portion of the summer.

WOULD ANNEX.

At a special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, held last night, the Board of Directors adopted resolutions endorsing the proposal to annex a large slice of territory to the present city limits, and a committee of five was named, whose duty it will be to secure votes and see that every favorable vote is taken to the polls.

At the last election, when the proposal failed to carry, it is shown that there were voters enough in Forterville to deny hereafter the school privileges to those residents whose homes are at the southern end of the city limits. It is proposed by the directors to refuse them the school privileges as well.

DIED ON VACATION.

Arthur Adkins, a resident of the Westfield section, where he was engaged in the poultry business, died very suddenly while on a vacation trip to the northern part of this state.
